GERMANY IS MASSING TROOPS

ONE MAN IS KILLED RESULT SOUR LAKE AND LIBERTY FEUD

SOUR LAKE, TEXAS, May 28—Of the three men warned last Saturday to leave town one is dead, another is out of town and a third has been tarred and feathered. The latter, Joe J. Devere, justice of the peace, will leave town tonight.

The first two men were warned by Devere last Saturday, according to Constable Branch. Devere called them into his office just after he had been punished by a mob of masked men.

"I want you to see me just as I am," he is alleged to have told them, according to Branch, who was present, having picked up Devere in the street. "They tell me that just what they have done to me they will do to you. They warn you two and myself to leave town."

Two preachers and 23 other citizens still are acting as special deputies.

The trouble here grows out of a political fight to have the city corporation dissolved. Judge Pelt is understood to have filed the suit. It is now before the state supreme court.

The dead man was R. F. Dickens. He was shot Thursday night.

TRIANGULAR MIX-UP LEADS TO CUTTING THAT MAY BE FATAL

J. C. INABINIT SLASHED BY B. M. WELLS IN TENT ON INDIANA AVENUE LATE SATURDAY.

UNEXPECTED RETURN OF HUSBAND LEADS TO AFFAIR

Denied Admission by Wife, Enters Through Window and Cutting Follows.

J. C. Inabinit, 30, said to be an oil field worker, is at the Wichita General hospital in a critical condition, with a knife wound in his throat, and B. "Y" Wells, 28, a cook, is in the city lockup, as the result of a triangular affray shortly before midnight Saturday in a tent at the rear of 1009 Indiana. Wells came home unexpectedly after a two months' absence.

Mrs. Wells received a slight wound in the hand. At the general hospital early Sunday, some doubt was expressed whether Inabinit would survive the night.

The cutting took place a few moments after Wells reached this city from Fort Worth. According to his own story, he was denied admission to the tent, which is a canvas-frame structure, his wife telling him to come back in the morning.

Uses Knife and Chair.

"I went around to the window and saw Inabinit in there. Then I jumped through the window and started after him."

A small pocket knife was used in the cutting, and after slashing Inabinit's neck, Wells says he struck him with a chair. The cries of Mrs. Wells aroused neighbors, and Wells fled. He was captured shortly after the occurrence by Patrolman James on Ohio between Seventh and Eighth and was locked up. Inabinit was rushed to the hospital by officers Shook and Newton.

Although neighbors who saw Inabinit after the cutting thought a number of wounds had been inflicted it was said at the hospital that only one wound was found, a four-inch gash in the right side of the neck. Hospital attendants said Inabinit was very weak from loss of blood.

"I knew this had been going on," Wells told a Times representative. "She left me two months ago for Talman after I'd tried to patch things up. I sent a message to her sister in Pearsall to make her think I was in Laredo, knowing her sister would write. Then I came on up here.

"When I got to the tent she wouldn't let me in. I said I wanted to see my boys, but she said wait until in the morning. Then I went around to the window and saw Inabinit in there."

The two Wells boys are eight and ten years of age. Mrs. Wells refused to talk to newspaper men.

Wells said that Inabinit and Mrs. Wells were on the bed together, and that both were fully clothed except that Mrs. Wells wore no shoes. Mrs. Wells tried to help Inabinit, he said. Wells said he threw a chair at Inabinit after the latter had said, "I'll fix you for this."

Mrs. Wells, who is 40 years of age, was formerly employed at a cold drink stand.

According to Wells, Inabinit has a family.

"Lone Wolves" the Big Manipulators Of Grain Market

WASHINGTON, May 28 — Lone wolves"—big speculators who work quietly and alone—are the greatest manipulators of the grain market, Harry E. Smith, grain supervisor of the bureau of markets told the senate agriculture committee considering the Capper bill to prevent grain speculation.

"The market is controlled by grain speculators at times, no matter what may be said," declared Smith.

Smith declared that limiting the amount that one man could hold in open speculative trade to one million bushels of grain would cure market control and prevent "cornering."

7000 Gallons of Booze Destroyed At Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., May 28—This is a sad, sad tale, mates.

They destroyed approximately 7,000 gallons of liquor here today. The booze had been confiscated by state and federal prohibition agents. Its "interment" was ordered by Federal Judge Cotteral.

REPARATIONS COMMISSION WILL ASSUME CONTROL OF HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT

LONDON, May 28—A dispatch to the Daily Herald, the labor organ, from Vienna says the supreme council has notified the Hungarian government that when the reparations commission arrives in Budapest at the end of June it will assume control of the country both politically and economically. It also will demand the resignation of Regent Horthy and the establishment of a provisional government composed of members of all parties. This new government will immediately hold new elections under international supervision.

The existing national assembly, the dispatch adds, will first be required formally to dethrone the Hapsburgs.

NOT MUCH DEMAND FOR LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS OF ROYAL PERSONAGES

PHILADELPHIA, May 28—Letters and documents signed by royal personages of former centuries brought only $1 to $14 each in an auction sale here yesterday, while Benjamin Franklin's essay on hygrometers went for $270. A parchment of Louis XIII, king of France, sold for $1, and another parchment bearing the signature of "Le Grand Monarque," Louis XIV, brought $3.75.

A papal brief in Latin by Pope Clement IX, dated 1669, brought only 50 cents. The first Napoleon's signature sold for $6, while a letter from James II of England to the earls of Tyronnel brought $14.

More substantial prices were paid for documents concerning the American revolution.

ARREST OF NEGRO MAY CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF BOX CAR BURGLARIES

WACO, TEXAS, May 28—The arrest of Fred Jackson, a negro, and his alleged confession, local authorities say, has enabled the sheriff's office to uncover a series of box car burglaries on the M., K. & T. railroad, covering the line from Bellmead to LaGrange. More than one thousand dollars worth of stolen goods have been recovered and the work is not completed. Eight other arrests have been made.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE IN CASE OF ELLIS W. HICKS

WACO, TEXAS, May 28—For the third time a jury in the case of Ellis W. Hicks, Waco printer, charged with killing J. B. Denn here last year, failed to agree and was discharged today by Judge R. I. Monroe.

American Soldier Dead in Europe Will Be Honored by Appropriate Ceremonies Around 55,000 Graves

PARIS, May 28—American soldier dead throughout Europe will be honored Monday by their compatriots and citizens of the countries where their bodies lie.

A wreath will be placed by representatives of the American Legion on more than 55,000 graves in France, Great Britain, Italy and Belgium. Special services will be held in the four big cemeteries in this country at Suresnes, Romagne, Belleau and Bony.

Marshal Petain will deliver the Memorial Day address at Suresnes. Rear Admiral Magruder and Brigadier-General Johnston will speak at Belleau in the morning and at Chateau-Thierry in the afternoon. Brigadier-General Parker, who commanded the first division, will conduct the services at Bony.

French veterans, war orphans and local patriotic societies, in some instances aided by American soldiers, will unite in making the day a replica of France's All Souls Day at the cemeteries scattered throughout the battle areas of Northern France and the service of supply routes.

In Paris, the service will begin tomorrow in American churches. There and band from the Rhine forces, as will be a parade by a picked company companied by French artillery. A wreath will be placed on the tomb of the unknown poilu at the Arch of Triumph.

Ambassador Wallace will deliver an address and lay a wreath on the statue of Washington and the grave of Lafayette.

PRESIDENT WILL DELIVER MEMORIAL DAY ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, May 28—From the marble amphitheater of the Arlington Memorial overlooking Washington President Harding Monday will deliver his first Memorial day address to an assembly of war veterans, high government officials and diplomats.

Near the memorial are buried heroes of Americas wars, including several thousand veterans of the world war whose bodies have been brought from Europe.

Tomorrow Harding will speak at a ceremony at Pohick, Va., unveiling a tablet to the dead of the world war.

Memorial day has called forth from former President Wilson one of the few public letters he has written since leaving the White House. The letter, written to the Stars and Stripes, a veterans paper, praises the veterans of the world war.

"It is our privilege not only to indulge a high and solemn pride and grief for the heroes of that great struggle but also to rededicate ourselves to the achievements of the great object for which that war was fought," Wilson wrote.

GEN. PERSHING TO REVIEW MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

CHICAGO, May 28—General John J. Pershing is expected to review Chicago's memorial day parade on Monday. The army chief will be passing through the city enroute to Lincoln, Nebraska.

Extensive plans were made for the day's observance.

Services will be held in all cemeteries. Bodies of several soldiers just returned from France will be placed at rest amid solemn ceremonies.

MEMORIAL DAY MESSAGES BY PERSHING AND WEEKS

WASHINGTON, May 28—Memorial day messages bespeaking a reaffirmation of loyalty and service to the nation on the part of the American people were issued tonight by General Pershing and Secretary of War Weeks.

General Pershing declared that memorial day should symbolize a new consecration of our lives to service while Secretary Weeks said it was on memorial day, in the presence of our dead that Americans can renew their faith in our ideals and institutions and reaffirm their pledge of unceasing loyalty to the republic.

Memorial day each year comes to us in the height of springtime with all nature in blossom, said General Pershing. "It is the season when the world bursts forth in the beauty of new life and new hopes and when warm sentiments fill the human heart. In the midst of these surroundings our thoughts turn backward to the memory of loved ones and we gather to honor the services and the heroism of those who gave their lives to the country. We live over again with them the days of pleasure and sorrow and revive their service and their sacrifice. While our hearts are saddened I like to think that those whom we remember are

FACES DECISION AS BETWEEN OLD GUARD AND FARMER GROUP

SITUATION FORCED ON PRESIDENT BY TWO BILLS PENDING.

VITALLY AFFECT THE NATIONS FOOD SUPPLY

Are Bills Regulating Grain Exchanges and for Control of the Packers.

WASHINGTON, May 28—President Harding soon will be forced to decide whether the legislative theories of the "old guard" or the new farmer group in congress regarding two bills vitally affecting the nations food supply are to prevail as the policy of the administration.

These measures are the bill regulating grain exchanges already passed by the house and packer control legislation now being considered in the lower branch of congress.

Opponents of this class of legislation, mainly the "old guard," claim it conflicts directly with the president's theory of less government in business. The bills give wide powers to the department of agriculture to regulate trading on the grain exchanges and the business of the packers.

The new farmer congressional group sponsor of the measures, however, claims Harding is friendly to the interests of the farmers as evidenced by his approval of the emergency tariff bill.

So far the president has not expressed his opinion directly on either of the measures. It appears that both bills can be passed through congress, but it is certain that thereafter the "old guard" and the farmer congressmen will engage in a vigorous "tug of war" to swing the executive to their respective sides.

Representatives of the packers here now are claiming that Harding is certain to veto the packer control bill. They have in large measure ceased their previously strong fight against the bill.

Sorrow in Home Of Edgar A Guest; Daughter is Dead

DETROIT, MICH., May 28—Death came Friday night into the home of Detroit's poet of happiness, when Marjorie, 14-year-old daughter of Edgar A. Guest and inspiration of many of his best child poems, succumbed after a long illness from tuberculosis. Mr. Guest took her west recently in hopes it would benefit her health.

AN ANGLO-AMERICAN WORKING ENTENTE IS FORESEEN BY SENATE

WASHINGTON, May 28—An Anglo-American "working entente" as the foundation for international arrangements for preserving world peace is foreseen by republican members of the senate foreign relations committee.

The Borah disarmament conference plan may, in the opinion of these senators, lead to the working out of the understanding between the two nations. Disarmament is admittedly a pre-requisite to sustained peace, these senators point out.

They assume of course that the Borah proposal will be accepted by the public as a rider to the navy bill, as it has been by the senate, and that President Harding will sign the bill and within a reasonable time act on Borah's suggestion of a three power naval disarmament conference.

"Just get the United States and Great Britain together in a conference on this matter, in the present state of the public and official mind in the two countries," the senators say, "and an accord will result which will have powerful influence on other nations."

BODY OF MAN DROWNED IS ANDREW BARTT DAVIS

HOUSTON, May 28—Relatives today identified as that of Andrew Bart Davis of Houston, the body of the drowned man found two days ago in the ship canal. Davis formerly lived in Pittsburg but has been here a year for his health. Relatives said he must have fallen into the stream accidentally.

NO PUNISHMENT FOR GUARDS FOR ACTION IN CAPTURING CONVICTS

GOVERNOR DECLARES NUMBER OF ESCAPES TO BE ALARMING.

TO GRANT SOME PARDONS TO MERITORIOUS CONVICTS

Will Wait Until Respect For Law is Established and Crime Wave Subsides.

AUSTIN, May 28—Governor Neff said today in a letter to the board of prison commissioners that he expects to pardon some meritorious convicts when respect for law is established in Texas and the crime wave subsides. The letter advised the commissioners that while I am governor no guard will be punished where I can prevent for doing whatever is necessary to be done to keep convicts from escaping.

Governor Neff's letter followed a close examination of the prison report for 1920 with reference to the number of escapes that year. He said that the 1920 escapes seemed to him to be an alarmingly large number.

In looking over the annual penitentiary report I find that during the year 1920 two hundred and fifty-six convicts escaped from the penitentiary," the governor said. "This is an alarmingly large number, it seems to me, to be permitted to escape the guards. I have been advised that frequently guards permit them to escape rather than use force to stop them for fear they will be censured for cruel treatment. I do not share that view. The penitentiary is made for convicts to stay in and not a trap door through which they are to be turned out on the public. I wish the guards to be advised, preferably in concert with your approval, that while I am governor no guard will be punished where I can prevent for doing whatever is necessary to be done to keep convicts from escaping. Convicts should be taught to know that when the law places them in the penitentiary they are there to stay until they are by the law released. When respect for law is established in Texas and the crime wave subsides I expect to grant some pardons to meritorious convicts, but I do not intend to extend clemency to a convict who has broken a trust or assaulted guards in an effort to escape. While I believe every convict should be given the punishment that fellows crime, should he be treated kindly and in the most humane manner possible, but they should know that their life for the time being is in the penitentiary, and that while their lives must be the price if they will not willingly obey penitentiary authorities they must be made to do so. Every citizen of the state should know that the penitentiary should know that the penitentiary is a penitentiary where those who violate the law pay the penalty. I do not think they should be permitted to escape at the average of about one a day. It is my profound judgment that just as soon as the convicts understand that the guards are not going to let them escape they will quit trying to do so. This letter is to advise you that I shall be glad to cooperate with you in any way possible looking to the elimination of the causes that make easy these escapes."

NEW WORLD RECORD FOR A LOW ALTITUDE DROP FROM AIRPLANE

EL RENO, OKLA., May 28—Frederick M. Lemon, aviator of Oklahoma City today broke the world's record for low altitude parachute drops from an aeroplane when he dropped from 150 feet here in a parachute designed and patented by himself. The world's record was 175 feet. Army officers from Post Field, Okla., who witnessed the drop said they would attempt to have it made official.

FORMER JUGO-SLAV PREMIER DIES IN PARIS SATURDAY

By Associated Press

PARIS, May 28—Dr. Milenko R. Vesnitch, former Jugo-Slav premier and minister of foreign affairs and lately Jugo-Slav minister to France, died here today.

In 1906 he married Mrs. Blanche Ulman of New York.

RESERVE BANK TO ACCEPT AUTO PAPER AS OTHER SECURITY

KANSAS CITY, MO., May 28—The federal reserve bank of this district now is accepting automobile "paper" on the same basis as agricultural and other industrial "paper," Abe E. Ramsey, chairman of the board of governors announced today.

This represents evidence of material improvement in the financial situation here.

During the recent financial depression here, automobile paper was not given the same consideration by banks as other industrial paper.

Automobile men charged that they were being discriminated against.

"We are beginning to take high class solvent liquid and otherwise eligible automobile paper," said Mr. Ramsey, "especially if it is presented to member banks which are now borrowing excessively.

"The federal reserve bank is giving careful consideration to all commercial or industrial paper including automobile paper especially when supported by proper financial statements."

Allies Hold a Place for U. S.

By Associated Press

PARIS, May 28 — The United States has been invited to name a member of the guarantees commission and a place has been held open for an American representative the other members having been chosen by the reparations commission.

Roland W. Boyden, who has resumed his seat with the reparations commission on instructions from Washington, has informed the commission that he has not received orders from the American government with regard to the guarantees commission.

CONTINUE CONCENTRATION NEAR SILESIAN BORDER IS LATE REPORT; ALLIES TO FORCE NEUTRAL ZONE

BERLIN, May 28.—An entire British division, instead of four battalions, is being dispatched to Upper Silesia at once, according to information here today. It will travel with full field equipment and be under the command of General Henniker.

Colonel A. G. Wauchope of the Black Watch passed through Berlin today on his way to Oppeln.

By Associated Press

PARIS, May 28—The allied council of ambassadors has virtually approved a plan to establish a neutral zone between the German and the Polish forces in Upper Silesia. It decided at its meeting this forenoon, however, to obtain further information desired before taking definite action.

The concentration of German troops at Brieg, near the Silesian frontier, is declared in dispatches reaching the foreign office today to be continuing.

LONDON, May 28—M. Briand has presented a note to the British foreign office pointing out that the Germans are continuing their operations in Upper Silesia, and suggests that the plebiscite question await the restoration of order with the arrival of British effectives.

The French premier is further of the opinion that since the reports of the allied high commissioners are not unanimous, it is desirable that the question be submitted to a special committee, including lawyers and diplomats, who would communicate their findings to the supreme council.

ESSENTIAL TO MEET AT EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE

By Associated Press

LONDON, May 28—While no definite date has yet been proposed by the French government for the supreme council meeting to deal with the Silesian question it is officially stated here it was pointed out today that it was essential to hold the meeting at the earliest possible moment.

The suggestion regarding further examination of the details of the question by experts has been welcomed but it was pointed out that the first necessity was a meeting of the supreme council which alone is qualified to deal with the important political issues involved.

The British proposal formally made to the council of ambassadors for the creation of three zones in Upper Silesia to be occupied by the Poles, Germans and the allies respectively is favored by the Italian and it is hoped the French government also will agree to the plan which is being discussed by the council of ambassadors in Paris today.

NO DATE IS FIXED FOR MEETING OF THE ALLIES

PARIS, May 28—In contrary to expectations no date has yet been fixed for the meeting of the allied supreme council that Boyl-Genoa said is understood the French government sent to the British foreign office today, pointing out the disadvantage to be gained from not deciding the Upper Silesian question immediately to the use of the statesmen and the two countries interested.

French circles understand the proposed change the question of division of the disputed area to expert decisions on a line to make use of the information having the benefit of this technical examination.

Speaking of the Weather Saturday; Read of Montana

HELENA, MONT., May 28—Light snows are reported in widely separated places in Montana the fall being heaviest in the mountain sections. Snow was falling at Yellowstone today following a rain there last night according to the weather bureau in Helena's office.

PLAN "HOSPITALIZATION" WORK FOR THE SOLDIERS

CHICAGO, May 28—Hospitalization work for wounded soldiers involving the aid of thousands of women and the expenditure of perhaps millions of dollars was decided upon today by the Knights of Columbus according to an announcement by William J. Mahoney, supreme secretary.

Funds upwards of $1,000,000 appropriated for educational work will be drawn up for program.

FARMERS FINANCE CORPORATION WITH HUNDRED MILLION CAPITAL FOR THE MARKETING OF GRAIN

NEW YORK, May 28—Plans for cooperative grain marketing recently outlined by growers were advanced tonight by the formation of the farmers finance corporation with a capital stock of $100,000,000. This announcement made by the executive committee of the United States grain growers, Inc., stated that Bernard Baruch, one of the financiers with whom conferences were held yesterday and today will act in an advisory capacity for the newly organized body.

Incorporation papers will be filed in Delaware next Friday by Clifford Throne of Chicago, counsel for the executive committee of the grain growers, whose organization will work in association with the finance corporation.

Purposes of the corporation it was said include affording the farmers a ready market in case of money stringency, hastening the movement of grain between the point of origin and the consumer and the elimination of much of the handling of products by middlemen. The organization does not seek to wreck the existing marketing system, it was stated.

The marketing today is an offspring of committees of the American farm bureau, government committees and other farm organizations which held a series of conferences during the last few months.

Members of the grain growers executive committee present at today's conference included C. H. Hyde, Alva, Okla.

HESITATION WITH A LACK OF CONFIDENCE FEATURES CONGRESS

FACE NECESSITY OF FULFILLING CAMPAIGN PLEDGE TO SOLVE THE UNSOLVABLE.

REDUCTION OF TAXATION A CONSPICUOUS PROMISE

Cabinet Devotes More Time to Measures of Economy Than Any Other Subject.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and the Wichita Daily Times
(Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post)

WASHINGTON D C May 28—An estimate of the political atmosphere during the six weeks that Congress has been in session shows the most conspicuous factor to be a state of hesitation and lack of confidence as to programme This state is common but to the leaders of congress and to the rank and file and is as common to the Democrats as to the Republicans

For this there are several reasons For one the Republicans as one of their leaders expressed it are faced with the necessity of fulfilling their campaign promise to solve the unsolvable When any party or any leader is called upon to fulfill a promise that he can t fulfill the usual result is hesitation and indecision

The most conspicuous of the several promises the Republicans made was to reduce taxation The promise was meant in good faith Those who made it took it for granted they could do it In some ways they have set about doing it The cabinet devotes more time to measures of economy than to any other one subject

The program for a reorganization of the government, which ultimately will lead to great economy and efficiency is well under way But all that the cabinet can do in the way of selling war material and adopting policies of not paying rent for so many buildings and all the other cutting up of useless expense is merely minor compared to the big items in which the only really noticeable economies can possibly be effected

The tariff revision proposed by the Republican leaders cannot seriously reduce the burden of taxation in the near future Neither probably could any other tariff revision affect taxation until some other things are accomplished first These other things are things with which Congress cannot control They are in the field of international relations and that is a field in which having marched down the hill from where Wilson took us rather too suddenly we are now considering whether to turn around and march at least part of the way up again

It is this self consciousness about the futility of the tariff as an immediate means of reducing other forms of taxation that accounts for the lack of interest in it If the Republicans believe the tariff would really meet their promise of reducing other forms of taxation they would go into it with a hearty spirit As a matter of fact not only is the big tariff bill far behind its schedule but even the unimportant emergency tariff which was promised to be a law within two weeks from the beginning of the session was still hanging fire in the sixth week of the session The truth is the tariff leaves everybody cold It is this uneasiness about the party promise to reduce taxes that has brought out the most vital speeches made in either house during the present session It is this uneasiness about the cost of government that caused the lower house to try to reduce army appropriations to a basis of 150 000 men a basis which even in the judgment of strong believers in disarmament, is rather low

The question of disarmament is the one that contains for President Harding the greatest danger of having his hand forced He wants to go patiently and slowly about the whole complex business of international relations and until he makes satisfactory progress in other respects he does not want so to speak, to throw away his gun But he is faced by an increasing indisposition on the part of congress and the people to supply him with ammunition for his gun

Within the next few weeks there will develop a highly organized movement among the churches which ultimately will express itself in a demand on President Harding that he call an international conference for disarmament Politically it will be most unfortunate for President Harding if circumstances make him seem to resist this demand

Even if he should get past the crisis of the next few weeks he will face a worse one next December In December another naval appropriation bill will come up It will be handled by the same congress that is already restless about the present appropriation bill When the new naval appropriation bill comes up congress will be within three or four months of the primaries which will re elect or reject them

Under those circumstances the danger is that there will be forced upon President Harding and upon the country a disarmament by ourselves alone without reference to what other nations do President Harding has the alternative of proceeding to disarmament by conference with other nations in the near future of disarmament without regard to other nations next December

"FIND IT FOR ME, BOB," IS LADY ASTOR'S REQUEST OF LORD ROBERT CECIL

LONDON May 28—Lady Astor in a speech in the house of commons yesterday reproached the government for what she termed its failure to realize the awakened conscience of the country on the subject of maternity benefits She suggested that a committee representing women s societies should be appointed to see what information could be obtained from the maternity committee at Washington

Lady Astor said she regretted the British government s apparent apathy concerning the league of nations and repeated her belief today the women of America sooner or later would get the United States into some sort of a league

The Daily correspondent of the London Times mentions an amusing incident He says that when Lady Astor was unable to find a passage she desired in the parliamentary reports she threw the book to Lord Robert Cecil exclaiming Find it for me, Bob '

PLAN FOR OPENING OF ULSTER PARLIAMENT

Unionists Express Hope That Either King George or Prince of Wales Will Attend.

By Associated Press

BELFAST May 28—Sir James Craig premier-designate for Ulster has gone to London to arrange the details of the ceremony attending the new northern parliament June 7 The Ulster unionists still express the hope that either King George or the prince of Wales will formally open the proceedings, and decry the 'exaggerated' idea the people of England have concerning conditions in the six Ulster counties, which the English believe would make it dangerous for royalty to visit this country

The unionists however probably will have to be satisfied with some lesser dignitary

The ceremony will be held in the Belfast city hall, one of the finest edifices in Ireland It is a large stone building and is a commanding sight The interior is finished in Italian and Greek and Irish marble with fine memorial windows and some of the finest modern oak carvings

The nationalists and sinn feiners insist that the northern parliament will be unworkable from a financial standpoint The unionists especially since they are assured a large majority are more determined than ever to make the parliament a success

Both sides express dissatisfaction with the system of proportional representation, even the unionists admitting that the nationalists and sinn feiners are entitled according to the votes cast for them, to four members for Belfast whereas they have only one

SETTLE CONTROVERSY OVER PRESENTATION OF PAGEANT

MILWAUKEE WIS May 28—The controversy over presentation of the Pageant of the Pilgrims resulting from Archbishop Messmer's edict forbidding Catholic children to take part, has been settled largely through the efforts of the Rev Gustav Stearns

The pageant had been prepared as part of the park program to be given by school children July 4 and it is announced Archbishop Messmer has now promised that he would urge Catholic children to take part

The settlement was reached after several changes were made in the text of the pageant

One passage objected to was the explanation of the scene in which torch bearers seek truth The explanation stating that they came to America in search of religious liberty was changed to "political liberty Three similar changes were made

ONE BLOW WITH FIST FRACTURES MAN'S SKULL

CHICAGO May 28—Following a quarrel over who should carry a basket of bread from the house of correction bakery to the dining room, Jess O Conner serving a year for larceny, killed Pete de Angelo serving six months for assault with a deadly weapon

O Connor struck the Italian one blow with his fist De Angelo s skull was fractured

Large Crowd Bids Caruso Farewell as He Sails for Italy

NEW YORK May 28—Enrico Caruso his wife and little Gloria Caruso aided by secretaries chefs, valets maids and relatives found pier " where they were to make their departure for Italy, a blaze of farewell glory this afternoon

Special guards at the docks were necessary to hold back the crowds which wanted to pay their tributes to the great tenor

The seven suites, costing $35 000 and consisting of bedrooms, playrooms for Gloria dining room and one great music room housing a baby grand piano were a mass of flowers Telegrams in a great heap two feet deep formed a mound on one of the tables

Caruso was happy Some of his friends had said, not many weeks ago that Caruso was going home to die Now Caruso is going home to live And he predicted to his friends before his departure that he was coming back to America stronger than ever ready to prove on the stage of the Metropolitan that his illness of the winter had not ruined the golden voice

Memorial Day to Be Appropriately Observed

GRAVES OF SOLDIERS WILL BE DECORATED; PROGRAM PLANNED

Wichita Falls will pay appropriate tribute to her illustrious dead Monday, Memorial day. A program in which members of all patriotic organizations will take part has been arranged for the day

Observance began in one sense, on Saturday, when the sale of poppies started The little red flowers appeared on the coats and shirts of hundreds of Wichitans, who paid a dime or more for the privilege, the money going to the Kerrville hospital fund, although this city's quota was only $50, about $200 was obtained through the sale of the crimson blossoms

Mayor Cline Saturday proclaimed a half holiday, from one to six p m Monday, for observance of the occasion

Former service men are called to meet at 2 p m Monday at the legion headquarters and as many as can will wear their uniforms They will march from the headquarters at 812½ Ohio to the First Baptist church, where members of the Legion Auxiliary, United Confederate Veterans Sons of Confederate Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish War Veterans and Daughters of the American Revolution will join them, and the trip to Riverside cemetery will be made in automobiles

At the cemetery the graves of all ex-soldiers will be decorated, and a profusion of flowers will be provided for this purpose

At 8 p m Monday night the Memorial day program will be held at the First Baptist church J B Hatchitt former commander of the Pat Carrigan post, will preside, and the following program will be presented

Invocation—Rev W. C Ashford, assistant pastor First Baptist church

National anthem—Audience

Violin solo—Miss Berenice Jackson Mrs A H Britain, accompanist

Address—Col E L Culbertson, U S army

Selection—Quartette Mesdames Barron, Tully, Priddy and Clifford

Address—Judge B Y Cummings

Selection—Male quartette

Benediction—Rev Nat F Grafton

Colonel Culbertson was G-1 with the 36th division in France and has been commissioned in the regular army since the war Judge Cummings is a prominent attorney, recently of Hillsboro, but now of Wichita Falls

Participation in the services by members of all patriotic organizations is urged

THE DAY OF THEIR HONOR

There isn't a song on the driver's lips as the caissons roll today
There isn't the zest of the roaring ranks as the columns swing their way,
The old main street is a sunny street and far from the wrath of war,
But a Flag leads on where they followed once—the men who will march no more

The blue of the fleet that swept the seas the brown of the wild Argonne,
The men of Pershing and Mauser days come, shoulder to shoulder on
The caissons roll and the columns swing in the old "one two three four"
And the ranks close in where their files are blank—the men who will march no more.

The poppies bloom on the fields of France, and the North Sea waves are gray,
The plow rests fallow at Gettysburg and Morro is years away
The grass is green where the crosses stand and the sky bends smiling o'er
And a land bows head in their name today—the men who will march no more.

TREASURER OF GAS COMPANY ANSWERS RECENT COMPLAINTS

At a conference Saturday with Councilman W N Bonner commissioner of public utilities J M Lege of Dallas treasurer of the North Texas Gas company took occasion to defend the company against some of the overcharge complaints against it

Mr Lege told Judge Bonner that even if an error is made on one month's reading of a meter the checking system used by the company is certain to detect it in other months He insisted that the company had used extreme care in reading meters.

The matter of possible future increases in the gas rate was raised Saturday by Councilman Curlee in a letter to Judge Bonner The latter had not received the letter when he talked with Mr Lege but said he was sure no increase was planned The company can raise its rates only in case the gas costs it more at the wells where there has been no advance Mr Bonner pointed out

STOCK AND VAUDEVILLE ATTRACTIONS AT PALACE ENDS ENGAGEMENT HERE

Wichita Falls amusement fans will have to content themselves with moving pictures until the first of next September it was learned Saturday when announcement was made the Palace theatre would close Saturday night for the balance of the summer The Monroe Hopkins players who have been featured at the Palace for the past two weeks leave Monday to open an engagement at Lockhart

Failure of the public to support the shows has been assigned as the cause for closing the theatre it having been found that present business was not enough to justify the continuation of the presentations The public is tired of amusement theatrical officials believe and a rest will be acceptable to all concerned

The Palace will be opened next September for road shows and stock companies

AN AMENDED ANSWER MAY BE FILED BY MRS. STILLMAN

NEW YORK May 28—With negotiations for a settlement in the Stillman divorce case now definitely abandoned opposing counsel is today centered their efforts on postponement for resumption of the secret hearings Wednesday in Poughkeepsie

Reports were circulated again that Mrs Anne T Stillman would file an additional amended answer to James A Stillman's complaint naming a co-respondent other than Mrs Florence Lawler Leeds

The statement late yesterday by Cornelius J Sullivan chief counsel for Stillman declaring that the bankers legal representatives did not participate in the recent conferences and that the negotiations had completely failed led Mrs Stillman to make public the excerpts from a letter she received from John D Stinchfield her principal attorney which stated that the bankers had a proposition for settlement having the legitimacy of Guy unquestioned

CULLUM-ANDERSON WEDDING BEAUTIFULLY SOLEMNIZED AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

MR AND MRS L H CULLUM

Landon H Cullum and Miss Leila Pearl Anderson daughter of Mr and Mrs G D Anderson were united in marriage Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian church Rev Nat L Grafton performing the ceremony

The marriage solemnization was very beautiful The church decoration continued to a solid banking of palms and ferns before the altar with tall tulle-tied baskets of gladioli among the greenery, was dignified and simple The family and out-of-town friends of the young couple occupied pews designated by bows of white tulle with fern while the remainder of the church was filled with friends and acquaintances

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party with Mrs O F Maer at the organ, Mr John Martin of Breckenridge sang two solos 'O Promise Me' and 'Because' after which the organ strains developed softly into the processional The bridesmaid group and the maid and matrons of honor entered up the right and left aisles of the church alternating with the men of the wedding party several of whom had previously acted as ushers The maids came first—Misses Pauline Rich of Onah Astin of Bryan and Marian Maer followed by the matrons Mesdames Leslie Stringer and Harold Haynes and the maid of honor, Miss Louise Montgomery of Austin immediately preceding the bride The costumes were all fashioned of organdie and lace touched with contrasting colors and enhanced by the silver of slippers and stockings and the white enameled staffs with shower bouquets of sweet peas tulle tied to the tops added a graceful and attractive touch to the ensemble Miss Rich wore pale pink organdie touched with rose and exquisitely draped with lace Miss Astin wore orchid organdie and lace with touches of green and orchid Miss Maer wore pale blue organdie and lace with hand made flowers Mrs Stringer wore pink organdie and lace with inset medallions and applied flowers and Mrs Haynes wore pale green organdie and lace with touches of pink and hand made roses of pink Miss Montgomery wore peach georgette in pleated design softly draped above the waist

The bride who entered with her father and was met by Mr Cullum wore the bridal gown of imported lace over white satin trimmed with touches of silver and crystal beads, and entrained with tulle and white satin She carried a showered Colonial bouquet, and the bridal veil was caught with orange blossoms back from the face of as lovely a bride as was ever given in marriage in the beautiful First church edifice Little Master Walter Horne Priddy, who acted as train bearer was very handsome in a suit of black velvet with white collar and cuffs

Mr Cullum was attended first by his brother, and by Messrs Jack Duke of Breckenridge Charles Nolen, Dillard Anderson, Harold Haynes Leslie Stringer, Charles Francis Cedric Burgher of Dallas Lamar Fain and William Robertson

Reception at Home.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party out of town guests and immediate relatives were entertained at the G D Anderson home with a reception, during which the bride's cake was cut with a very pretty ceremony

Mr and Mrs Cullum left on a late train for Chicago, from where they will go to New York, Montreal Quebec and other points in the northeast for a three weeks tour On their return here they will make their home at 314 Tenth street

Out of Town Guests.

Out of town guests at the wedding included among others Mr and Mrs Owen Andersun of Olney Mr and Mrs F H Astin of Bryan Morris Hinnis of Olney Miss Onah Astin of Bryan Lloyd Lehrbas of Chicago Mrs J D Cullum and J D Cullum Jr of Dallas Mrs Montgomery and Miss Louise Montgomery of Austin Cedric Burgher of Dallas and Jack Duke and John Martin of Breckenridge

MEXICAN SITUATION AWAITS SUMMERLIN

Nothing Available to Public Until Attitude of Obregon is First Ascertained.

WASHINGTON May 28—George T Summerlin has assumed charge of the American embassy at Mexico City and is now in communication with President Obregon on the question of recognition by the United States it was announced today at the state department

Whether Summerlin has actually presented Obregon with the American note outlining the attitude of this government toward recognition of Mexico is not yet known

Officials said that Summerlin would confer with Obregon, present him with the American communication and learn his reaction to it The state department it was said authoritatively today expects soon to receive advices from Summerlin on which the next step by this government will be made

The recent report stating that Secretary of State Hughes communication to Mexico insisted that Obregon first sign a set of written guarantees before recognition is extended was denied on high authority at the state department today as 'without the slightest foundation

It was explained authoritatively today that the reason for the state department still refraining from making public the American communication is that this government first wants to hear from Summerlin what the situation is in Mexico and what Obregon's reaction is to the statement of the American attitude

THINKS HARVEY WANTED TO DELIVER FINAL STROKE TO THE WILSON POLICIES

LONDON, May 28—The Weekly Reviews printed editorials from the recent speech of Colonel George Harvey the American ambassador to the court of St James, before the Pilgrims' society but with somewhat of an air of bewilderment over the extent in which it indicated the lines of American policy All the journals however, agreed on the importance of the United States deciding to rejoin the supreme council and they consider that the most significant part of the ambassador's address.

The Nation finds this an odd decision because it says the United States will thus help administer a treaty it refuses to sign

Alluding to the rejection by the United States of the league of nations on the ground that it was an enforcing agency of the victors it asks what else is the supreme council?"

On the whole the Nation thinks Colonel Harvey wanted to deliver the finishing stroke" to the entire Wilson policy, while not abandoning what it characterizes as the position of a large body of opinion represented by Secretary of State Hughes and Secretary of Commerce Hoover

All the reviews welcome the fever with which Ambassador Harvey urged co-operation between the United States and Great Britain The Spectator in this respect finds the speech epoch-making and meaning that the American foreign policy is based upon the recognition of the common interest of the entire English-speaking world This newspaper considered that in deciding to rejoin the supreme council, President Harding has done "as practical a piece of work in the cause of peace as ever has been accomplished

What We Found Out—
We'll Show You Gladly

OUR decision to offer Brunswick Phonographs and Records to the many music lovers of Wichita Falls was not made over night. We investigated. We examined. We inquired and interrogated experts. We analyzed, not only for tone qualities, for cabinet work and construction, not only for versatility, but for the strength and policy of the company behind, and we easily decided on Brunswick.
Now you can find out
No matter what your Phonograph experience has been—no matter what you may now own—see, hear, and examine The Brunswick.
Even if you've heard all the others—hear this new-day instrument. Find out How it plays all records—any record—and plays them Better. Examine the matchless cabinet work, the design—realize its wonderful versatility.
Remember we are not only glad but anxious to demonstrate—to prove to you what was proven to us. You will not be urged to buy—just come and satisfy your curiosity.
This is "show you" week
We really are not so much interested in making sales this week as we are in answering questions.
We may tell you that the wonderful, oval, all-wood amplifier (or horn) in The Brunswick actually improves the tone of any make record—but you must see it and hear it to really Believe.
We may tell you that the Ultona reproducer plays every make of Record with just the right weight, just the right needle, and that it is so perfectly balanced that records wear longer, but we want you to examine it Yourself. Hear your favorite record on The Brunswick, and then "Just you hear a Brunswick Record."

Monday's Values Illustrate This Store's Supremacy in Value Giving

WITHOUT a doubt you will be down town Monday or one day this week. A visit to our store, a look at our windows, a walk through the many departments of our store will convince you that great preparations have been made to meet June's demands for Summer merchandise with correct merchandise at real saving prices. For months this store has intensified its efforts to establish the fact that we were giving unequaled values and building for the future by living up to our policy of lower prices for newer merchandise of better quality. June sees the climax of these efforts. We have assembled the merchandise for our Summer selling and we believe that this store will stand in the lead with the people of Wichita Falls and this trade territory as a satisfatcory store.

Summer Apparel

That Fits in With Holiday Moods and Plans

NOT every one summers away from home, but every one summers, and it is good to have pretty clothes when they may be had in modes delightfully frivolous for every need from picnics to parties and at prices exceedingly reasonable. It is indeed true a vacation outfit may be selected from these stocks for a very moderate sum. Come in and see the fascinating things to be had.

Values in Ladies' Blouses $5.95

Did ever a woman have too many blouses? As a matter of fact have you ever enough?

Here is a splendid opportunity to select several pretty summer blouses that are pretty enough and of the quality to make you believe they are worth double of this low price. Sale of 5 dozen pretty silk blouses $5.95

Wool Sport Skirts Priced $6.95

The skirt and blouse are absolutely indespensible for the summer days. We have on sale a splendid assortment of wool sport skirts in pretty plaids, stripes and checks, made with knife and box pleats, also plain. These are splendid values in a regular way to $10.00, but our special price is $6.95

100 New Voile, Organdy and Gingham Dresses, $5.95

A great many of these dresses look like splendid values for $12.50. Our New York office wired us that they could purchase these dresses from a manufacturer who had five thousand of these dresses that he was compelled to dispose of. We bought 100 of the assortment and now place them on sale at this price. The materials are very good quality of Organdy, Voile and Gingham and the colors are very pretty and the styles are all new and desirable. 100 MEN ORDERED TO REPORT JUNE 1 FOR MURDER TRIAL

A special venire has been ordered in the case of the State against A. C. Carpenter, charged with murder and the 100 men so summoned have been asked to report on Wednesday morning, June 1.

Carpenter is charged with the murder of Jack Hollingsworth, who met his death in the alley just east of the Hearn hotel last February. Hollingsworth was shot three times, it was reported, and died a few hours later at the general hospital.

The defendant pleaded not guilty at the preliminary hearing and his bond was set at $10,000, which he promptly made and was released. At the examining trial before Justice of the Peace R. V. Gwinn self defense was pleaded, and testimony was introduced to show the court that the deceased had made threats against the defendant.

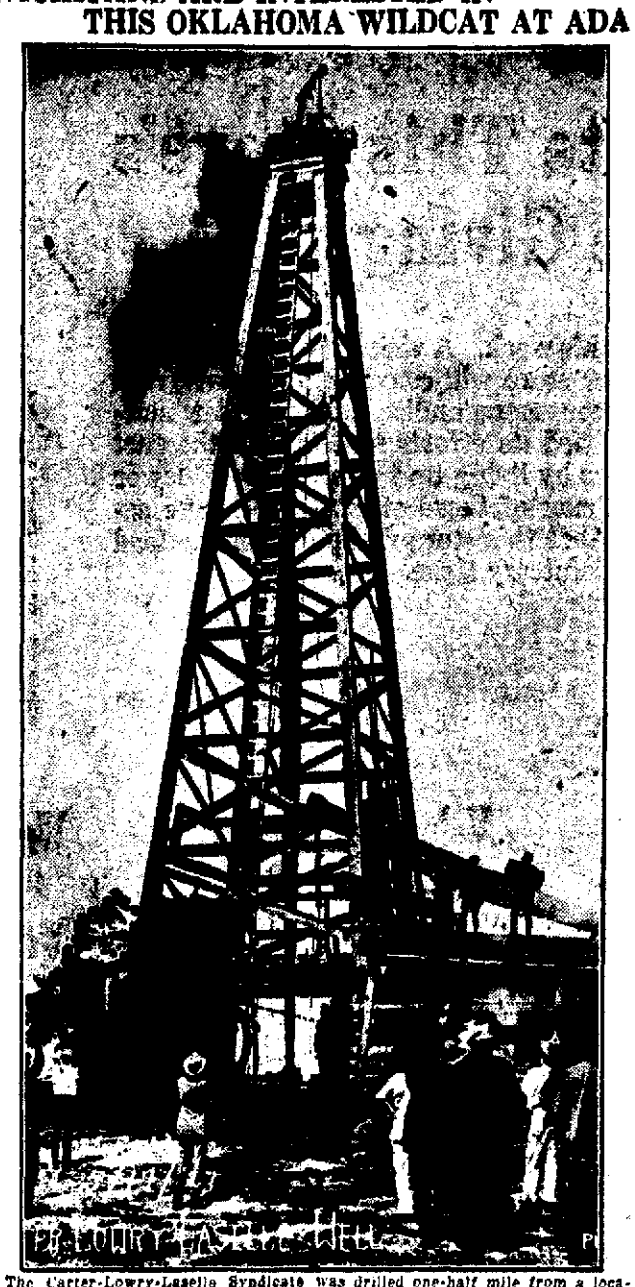
CITY HALL UNDERGOING REPAIRS AND CHANGES IN SEVERAL OFFICES

The city hall is being renovated, cleaned up and rearranged, so much so that it will look like an entirely different place on the inside when workmen are through. On the second floor three rooms formerly occupied by Fire Chief McClure and his family are being fixed up to accommodate the city engineer's offices, now located in the Bob Waggoner building, while on the first floor the tax collector's quarters are receiving the attention of a force of carpenters and plasterers.

Collector Anderson's rooms have been considerably cramped, and it is hoped that the new arrangement of counters and desks will provide a more comfortable place in which to work. Screens have been put on all the doors and windows of the hall also, and it is being given a general cleaning.

WICHITANS ARE INTERESTED IN THIS OKLAHOMA WILDCAT AT ADA



The Carter-Lowry-Laselle Syndicate well is in section 32, 5 north, 5 east, 12 miles northwest of Ada, Okla., and eight miles northwest of the big gas wells that supply Ada with her fuel. The well is a real wildcat as it is 25 miles from any other production and was drilled one-half mile from a location made by Major John J. Otly for his company over two years ago, but was never drilled. In Mr. Otly's report, he estimated that the oil would be found at 1,800 feet, and the present well found the sand at 1,750 feet. They have drilled only three feet in the sand and will not drill any deeper until the pipe line arrives. The well is good for 155 barrels in its present condition.

Carter-Nance and Laselle originally owned the well and the contract depth was 1,200 feet; after reaching this depth they made a new contract with the drilling company to go down to 1,500 feet; then a contract to go to 1,700 feet, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon the syndicate ordered the driller to shut the well down at 6 o'clock and pull the casing as he was then at 1,740 feet. At 4 o'clock the same afternoon he hit the sand at 1,750 feet. Roy I. Carter and B. A. Laselle have made a statement that they would never again stop a wildcat well from drilling as long as the driller could make hole.

George A. Lowry purchased the Nance one-third interest after the well was finished for a consideration of $500,000 and the well is now known as the Carter-Lowry-Laselle syndicate.

There are three other wells drilling about four miles away from the present well and four locations close up to the new well.

TWO ENTER PLEAS OF GUILTY IN COUNTY COURT

Wade Taylor, charged with carrying knucks, and W. Bogatt, charged with theft, pleaded guilty before Judge Guy Rogers of the county court at law Saturday. Taylor was fined $100 and costs and Bogatt drew one day in jail and a fine of $1.

Wichita Falls women find in the City National Bank of Commerce that courteous attention which, combined with complete facilities and every convenience, makes their banking transactions pleasant as well as profitable. 16-1tc

QUARTER MILLION OIL SUIT WILL BE FINISHED TUESDAY

The $250,000 oil suit, styled Gladiolus Oil company vs. Planet Petroleum company et al., which began in the 89th district court early in the week, will not be concluded until next Tuesday.

Members of the jury asked that the case be passed over until that time as several had important business to attend to Monday. Judge P. A. Martin stated that inasmuch as the case could not be finished Saturday afternoon, that he would recess until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. All the testimony in the case has not been offered as yet.

BAILEY TO SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY CLUB LUNCH, IF HE REMAINS IN CITY

Should the lawsuit in which Senator Bailey appears as attorney in the 89th district court continue into Tuesday of this week, Senator Bailey will be speaker at the University club luncheon Tuesday next.

The senator has stated that in the event he will be detained in Wichita Falls by the case in which he is interested, he will oblige the program committee of the University club by appearing on their luncheon program Tuesday. In this event the club will hold open house to all friends of the senator and the public as interested in hearing him, who wish to attend the luncheon at usual hour 12:10 sharp at the Kemp.

Should the senator be unable to appear, the club will again take up the rent problems of the city of Wichita Falls with C. W. Reid of the City National Bank of Commerce as speaker. There is a wide range of views on the rent question, and the University club in line with views propounded by Elmer Scott of Dallas when speaking before the club, believes that added information to all interested would most probably aid in solution of the problem. There is particularly wide range of views as to the efficacy of legislation as a cure-all of social problems. Some hold that where the necessary background of intelligent understanding and public opinion to support enforcement of any law enacted, legislation but makes confusion worse confounded.

As the musical treat on the program there will be vocal solos by Mrs. H. M. Young, accompanied by Mrs. Collard.

Special road fund: Disbursements $385,553.19, balance $77,504.80.

County farm: Disbursements $15,575.05.

The county farm disbursement was the largest item in the expenditures of the general fund. It cost the county $13,847.44 for record books and printing during the year and $13,159 for new cell work in the county jail. The county farm through the sale of farm products reimbursed the general fund to the amount of $1,353.35.

The largest item of disbursements under the special road fund was for cement, which amounted to $90,449.41, while labor and pay roll was second with $52,443.16.

60 SCOUTS SIGN UP FOR SUMMER CAMP

Advance Guard of Fifteen Will Leave Monday to Get Site Ready For Others.

Plans for the summer camp to be held at Craterville, Okla., June 1 to 14 have been completed, according to Scout Executive H. E. Taylor. All provisions have been purchased and tents secured. Sixty boys have registered and paid their camp fee, and it is the belief of Mr. Taylor that at least 15 or 20 more will have registered before the general embarkation for the camp.

Fifteen scouts will leave early Monday morning for the site of the camp in order to pitch tents and make everything in readiness for the main delegation, which will leave Wichita Falls at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The plan to establish wireless communication with Wichita Falls has been "blown up." No current of sufficient strength to operate the sets can be obtained, it is said.

Troop 15 went to Burkburnett Saturday morning and took on the troop at that city in a baseball game. The result of hostilities had not been learned at a late hour Saturday. The local troop planned to spend the night in camp near Charlie, Texas, and return here Sunday noon.

A new troop is to be formed at the Presbyterian mission near the brick yards, according to Scout Executive Taylor, as soon as a few more boys can be induced to join. The need of a troop in this section of the city has been felt for some time.

The only ball game reported Saturday was between troops 11 and 9, and resulted in an 11 to 10 score for the former.

E. Kaufman has been appointed band leader for the scouts while M. R. Johnson is out of town. Mr. Kaufman plans organizing a trumpet corps within the next few weeks.

All boys in the drum corps are requested to be at the First Methodist church south, Tenth and Lamar, at 7:30 Tuesday evening. Important business will be transacted at the meeting.

No. 1—This picture gives a hint of the old-fashioned arrangement of this front yard, but no mere picture could portray the radiant wealth of flowers that make it a real beauty spot. The place is that of G. W. Merse at 1605 Eleventh.

No. 2—Nearly everybody in the 1900 and 2000 blocks on Lucile has tried to make his place attractive, and the general effectiveness is pleasantly refreshing. Homes shown in the picture are those of J. R. Loggan, Emil Kuchn, Mrs. E. F. Kemp and Mrs. M. M. Adickes.

No. 3—Trees, lawn, flowers and shrubbery combine to enhance the good looks of the W. E. Norton home at Eleventh and Brook, where the result of much hard work is an elaborate, but not over-elaborate, yardscape.

No. 4—The W. S. Langford home at Tenth and Tilden is an example of what can be done when one has a little extra space to work in.

No. 5—Just a fence and some roses at the W. S. Robertson home on Rose avenue, but the result is far more attractive than this picture indicates.

No. 6—A row of substantial Huff avenue homes whose owners have learned how attractively shrubbery can be used close to the front porch. The picture was taken in the 1800 block, and the homes are those of J. C. Wharton, B. E. Fuller and M. Mitcham.

No. 7—The C. E. Basham home at 2702 Ninth is an illustration of the restful effect of trees in the front yard. Most Wichitans confine their tree-planting to the curb. Both Mr. Basham's place and that of Lee Bass, next door, have made the most of opportunities in lawns and flowers.

No. 8—These Tenth street folks haven't overlooked that little strip of space between the front walk and the curb, and they have been nearly enough unanimous about it to get some very pleasing results. The yard on the right is that of J. B. Patrick, whose house doesn't show in the picture; others are Bert Adrian, J. M. Bland and W. L. Tittle.

No. 9—The J. C. Haynes place at Eighth and Filmore has a wide lawn hemmed in by trees and flowering plants that reflect both pride and care on the part of the owners.

No. 10—On Ninth, they have such a pretty street, since it was paved and parked in the middle, that they feel like putting in some extra licks on the yard. This picture was taken between Buchanan and Grant and shows the front yards of L. F. Ramming, Mrs. Bertha Ramming and Dr. C. R. Hartsook. Some of the plants in the L. F. Ramming yard are so big they almost cut off the view of the other yards.

No. 11—This is another spot that a picture can only hint at the beauty of. Multi-colored flowers and a luxuriant growth of other plants make it something that T. J. Waggoner should be very proud of, and probably is, at his place on Buchanan street.

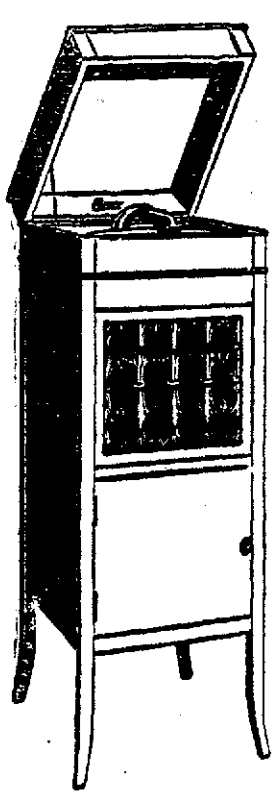
Do You Know This?

THOMAS A. EDISON spent three million dollars to develop a reproducing instrument which would give perfect music of all kinds, and which, through its supreme realism, could confer upon every home the incalculable benefits of pure and good music, exactly as rendered by the world's best artists.

Duplicates of this original three-million-dollar instrument are now on sale at $295.00. These instruments are known as Official Laboratory Models.

Many people seem to believe that Mr. Edisons' great invention can be obtained only in the Official Laboratory Model. We are therefore glad to be able to announce that there is a skillful adaptation of the Official Laboratory Model, encased in a charming Heppelwhite cabinet, which can be purchased for:



HEPPELWHITE

Described by Miss Elsie de Wolfe as a "characteristically diminutive and graceful Heppelwhite"; designed with particular reference to the requirements of city apartment dwellers, but perfectly appropriate to the largest mansions. Grille reproduces Heppelwhite's historic "Prince of Wales Feathers," with a treatment which gives the feeling of time mellowed hand-carvings. Genuine mahogany or genuine quarter-sawed oak.

$167.50
A Real Edison

We have no hesitation in stating that this Heppelwhite model of the New Edison is vastly superior to any and all talking machines at any and all prices. We are prepared to submit the Heppelwhite to scientific comparison for proof of our assertion—you and your friends to be the judges.

Hundreds of thousands of people believe that $295 is not too much to pay for the Official Laboratory Model, which embodies all of Mr. Edison's three-million-dollar research. Many others pay more than $295 for it in special French and Italian cases, or inlaid and hand-decorated English cabinets. However, there may be some who are not yet ready to purchase the Official Laboratory Model. To them we say: Don't delay, don't deny yourself the pleasure and benefits of Mr. Edison's research work. Buy a Heppelwhite now, and later trade it in on an Official Laboratory Model.

Special Offer

We have set aside a limited number of these charming Heppelwhites. We shall be glad to prove to your satisfaction that they are far superior to any talking machine at any price. Take one of these beautiful Heppelwhites at $167.50 with the understanding that at any time within one year from the date of purchase you can, if you desire to do so, return the Heppelwhite and receive credit on the purchase of an Official Laboratory Model, for the full amount paid by you for your Heppelwhite. There are absolutely no strings on this special offer. It is a part of our co-operation with Mr. Edison to put real music in every home, particularly those homes where there are young people whose natures are now molding, and who, above all others, require the improving and ennobling influence of the wonderful music which Edison has placed within the reach of every one.

We are able to make this special offer because there will be no reduction in the prices of Edison instruments. Edison has raised his prices less than 15 per cent, since 1914. Don't wait. Come before this special allotment of Heppelwhites is gone. Come at once.

Special terms this month only. $12.50 cash—$12.50 per month.

WE MUST KEEP FAITH.

Governor Neff along with the governors of other states has proclaimed tomorrow as Decoration Day. It is set aside as one day on which we are to pay particular tribute to our honored dead.

This is well. Our debt to them can never be measured. We owe to their memories our right to hold our head high as a self-respecting free nation.

Those who fell in the recent supreme struggle for civilization are receiving particular homage today and will receive it tomorrow because their sacrifice is closer to us, because many of them were our own or our neighbor's own.

To one who was privileged to see our great transports, literally alive with khaki clad figures, moving down the bay from New York, heading toward the open ocean and blood-red France, patriotism and citizenship and the strength of our mighty nation roused with righteousness will always be real things.

They went toward life's great adventure with light hearts, singing the catch words of popular war songs, waving at the crowds on the shores and the ferries, off to do battle and win or die. And we who remained at home, watching them go, found our eyes misty and our voices husky.

The only other instances in history comparable to their going to the other side of the world are the Crusades, which were the world's high tide of idealism.

So went our great hosts. They did their work as the soldier of no other nation is capable of doing it. And when they came back, those of them who did come back alive, found the country was theirs, as it should have been.

They had gone from us with holy zeal to fight a war to end wars. They went to the other side of the world from us to establish for all time the victory of civilization over brute force; to seal the doom of the last mad, might is right, autocracy forever. They did all that was asked of them, far more than even we who knew them and loved them expected of them. And we at home prayed for their safety and their success. We, too, wanted this war to end wars. That it might do so was what carried us through.

Then after it was all over and more than 60,000 of our precious sons slept in France we forgot our ideals and lost the exalted aspirations which had carried us through the war. We ignored the responsibilities which our sons' blood had placed upon us and turned our backs upon the God we had promised in our great struggle, to help bring forth a better understanding among His children.

This change, this forgetfulness, this rudeness all became possible because we are selfish, preverse human beings. To have expected more would have been mistaken. The pinch of hard times came upon us, the bitterness of political animosity consumed us and because the pinch of hard times and political animus spread and thrived among us we emphasized our changed minds at the polls.

We did this to our everlasting shame because the sag was on us, not because we honestly believed that our country could affect a supreme isolation with the world struggling in agony.

But we are not occupying a position of supreme isolation. Our task is a world task. We are a part of both Europe and Asia, no matter how much we may think the oceans separate us. As one commentator remarks, "The great currents sweeping across civilization, the great waves of economic pressure, rising with the rise of population all over the earth, breed wars and we cannot keep out of wars if we remain a party of civilization. But doing our full duty as a neighbor among the nations of the earth we may prevent wars."

With freshened minds and softened hearts let us re-dedicate ourselves to the task they so nobly and gloriously gave themselves to begin. A few days ago one of the ships which carried their stout hearts down the bay, heading toward the ocean and blood-red France, came back up the bay to New York harbor and docked, with 5,000 bodies, their mortal remains.

For them to have died in vain, to have died in vain because of heavy taxes and political prejudice can never be. The people of the earth call upon America today to help carry civilization's load. The sacrifices of our youth join in the plea. Shame and disgrace is ours if we trail in dust the glowing hopes of these men, if we break our faith with our dead sons.

PUTTING UP THE BARS.

For the first time in the history of the United States this country becomes no longer the home of those oppressed of the earth who would come.

The immigration bill which President Harding recently signed is an emergency measure which will be effective a little less than thirteen months. Before its expiration something of a more or less permanent policy may be worked out. In the meantime the flood of cheap European labor is held in check.

Unfortunately the bill does not in any way attempt to bar undesirables but it does limit immigration as a whole by applying the three per cent rule. For every hundred people of each Old World nation who were here in 1910 three more may now come within the year.

Fortunately the North European nations, whose people make our best citizens as a whole, will not be affected by the law since their former citizens are here in large numbers. Based on the 1910 figures it admits all the Irish, English, Scotch, Germans and Scandinavians likely to apply. Mexicans and Canadians are exempt.

But the southeastern European nationalities will be held well in check. The countries in that part of Europe are now the most distressed. Their people, for the most part, make our poorest citizens, since they remain in closed communities confine their activities to manual work and thus seldom rise above their lowly station in the old country.

They have been the hardest for us to assimilate. It is well, in the light of our present unemployment at home to restrict the number which can be admitted.

Now that the first step towards restriction of immigration has been taken, and a nation-old policy changed, it is earnestly to be hoped that before the termination of this emergency law, a policy will have been developed which is selective rather than enumerative.

Heretofore we have been the haven of refuge for the world's fit and unfit alike. The result has been that the great majority of our malcontents have been former European malcontents whose disagreement with authority, good or bad, is habitual.

With this element we have shown amazing patience. But patience in this instance has been no virtue. There has either not been enough fire under our melting pot or else we had indissoluble elements in it. The latter is more nearly the case.

From now on this nation should be for the fit. Limited immigration will help to make this so but intelligent, restricted immigration will be necessary before we are sound to the core.

We have been most to blame for the lightness with which our citizenship has heretofore been held. Any gift which is to be had for the asking must lose its value.

EXPENDITURES AND TAXES KEEP COMPANY.

It is axiomatic that taxes cannot be reduced until governmental expenditures decrease. This applies to city, county, state and nation. Estimates of expenditures in all of these divisions of government give little hope for any reduction in taxes. It is easy to add to government expenses and difficult to reduce them. Estimated expenditures by the federal government for the fiscal year beginning next July aggregate $4,500,000,000. This will be a small reduction from the expenditures for the year that will end June 30. If anybody has expected a reduction in federal taxes they are likely to be disappointed.

OUR INTEREST IN EDUCATION.

State aid may be necessary for the public schools in some sections of the state, but in Wichita county, which pays far more into the state school found than it receives, the people are exhibiting that initiative and independence which is a characteristic of progressive communities and they are losing no time in adopting the provision of the state law permitting the levy of a school tax of more than 50 cents. Already Electra, Burkburnett and Iowa Park have voted to authorize an increase in their school taxes and next month the tax payers of Wichita Falls will vote on the same proposition. There is no doubt but that the proposal will carry in Wichita Falls.

HELPING THE COTTON GROWERS.

The headlines announcing that the women of Chicago would wear cotton clothes in order to increase the consumption of cotton failed to arouse any hope for a better market for cotton, but a reading of the dispatch revealed that they were urging each woman of the federation to wear twenty yards of cotton cloth in the next six months. That's something substantial and different. There are plenty of women wearing clothes but some of them don't wear enough to help the cotton farmer.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

ADVOCATES UNIFORM MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE LAWS

To the Editor of The Times:

Speaker Gillett, of the house of representatives, according to a recent news dispatch in The Times, has offered a resolution in the house which proposes an amendment to our federal constitution that will prohibit polygamy in the United States. This is a short step in the right direction but why not go the entire distance and regulate, by unification, the divorce and marriage laws of the several states?

With all due respect for state rights, but with a much more profound respect for human rights and the well-being of society, this should be done.

All too frequently we hear expressed concerns over the divorce evil and the rapidity with which it is spreading. Uniform national laws covering marriage and divorce would soon reduce it to its necessary status.

Examples of the hodge podge of existing laws are herewith indicated to illustrate the need for such constructive legislation.

Whites and Chinese may not marry in California, Mississippi, Arizona, Utah and Oregon. But if there are two souls of these two races with such inclination they may get married in any of our other states.

Except in the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Arizona and Oregon, where such marriages are prohibited, Indians and whites may intermarry at will.

Marriages between whites and persons of negro descent are both prohibited and punishable in the following states: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia and West Virginia.

In that list there are twelve states south of the Mason and Dixon line, five states bordering on it and twelve states which are distinctly classed as Northern states.

This does not quite give the necessary two-thirds majority at present to make possible an amendment to the constitution, but sentiment in the remaining eight states required could be easily roused to secure the two-thirds majority.

Although there is no statute in several northern states prohibiting whites and negroes from marrying the local officials put every possible obstacle in the way of such efforts.

If first cousins wish to marry they may do so by going to the following states: Alabama, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia. Thus in 13 states they may accomplish the evil of inter-breeding, but the remaining 30 states prohibit their doing so.

In 1919 the laws of the state of Tennessee were changed, making 18 the legal age limit for marriage. Previous to that time boys of 14 and girls of 12 years of age were permitted to marry without their parent's consent.

However, with the parent's consent, male children of 14 years may marry according to law, at this time in the states of Kentucky, Louisiana, Virginia and New Hampshire and 12-year old girls may marry according to law, with parents consent in the states of Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi and Virginia, but New Hampshire makes them wait until they are 13 years old, while Arizona, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Iowa, North Carolina, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas and Utah provide for the postponement of this step until they are all of 14 years old.

So much for our crazy quilt legislation which permits persons of immature years to enter into life's most binding and solemn contract.

Our divorce laws are at just as much variance, running all the way from South Carolina, which does not grant divorces for any cause, to the wide open laws of the states of Nevada, Idaho and South Dakota where securing a divorce is a mere matter of court routine.

With the exception of South Carolina adultery is a primary ground for divorce in each state. In New York state adultery is the sole ground for divorce.

Desertion, as a grounds for divorce, is a ground for divorce in a majority of the states, but the period of desertion varies from one year to seven years before the divorce can be secured.

The laws of 35 states recognize physical incapacity as ground for divorce, 33 states recognize cruelty as sufficient grounds and 39 states provide for granting divorces in case of habitual drunkenness.

Except in Nevada and Idaho, which require a residence of six months, the period in which you must live in a state before bringing divorce proceedings varies from one to five years.

Idaho is willing to give a divorce at the end of six months residence on any of the following grounds: cruelty, one year's desertion, neglect for one year, habitual drunkenness for one year, felony and insanity. Nevada requires the same length of residence and will grant your divorce on the identical grounds except that her laws substitute physical incapacity in place of insanity. South Dakota's laws correspond to Idaho's except that a full year's residence is required.

The ease with which any one man can get from one state to another makes any suggestion of strict marriage and divorce laws in any state seem ridiculous. To attempt to make the laws of any state strict would be like fencing in a pasture between some posts with a dozen strands of heavy wire properly tightened and steepled, and between others with a single wire drugging the ground. By such fencing you could neither keep cattle in nor out.

To attempt, by amendment to our constitution, to make polygamy uniformly impossible all over the United States is a decided step in the right direction. But it is only one step in the long, hard road of making marriages, the requirements, divorces and the grounds for them uniform from one end of the country to the other. When those things have been done we will have less mis-mating and be a people of far happier homes.

To protect our weaker fellow citizens, and our own selves in moments of weakness or passion at both the entrance and exit of matrital relations is a duty of our federal government. We are first of all citizens of the United States and our offspring and our homes have most to do with that government's well being.

Yours very truly,
P. P. MOSHUN.

WHY?—

Do We Speak of "Pin Money?"

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

During the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, pins were so high-priced that only the wealthy could afford to own them. In addition, under the restrictions of a curious law, the manufacturers of pins were permitted to sell them only on two days of each year—January 1 and 2—and, when these days came around, women whose husbands could afford the expenditure secured "pin money" from them for their purchases.

While savages have, for ages, used thorns and splinters for the purpose of joining bits of hide or making garments out of leaves, pins as we know them today did not come into use until the early part of the fourteenth century. They were introduced into England in 1540, but it was not until 1824 that an American named Might invented a machine for manufacturing pins very rapidly, and more than 1500 tons of brass and iron are annually converted into pins in the United States alone—a condition which renders obsolete the original meaning of the phrase "pin money." This, however, still persists as a synonym for an allowance given by a husband to a wife to cover her personal expenses.

MONDAY—Why is today called "Memorial Day?"

JUST FOLKS
By EDGAR A. GUEST.

Teach Them of the Flag.

Teach the children of the Flag,
Let them know the joy it holds
In its sun-kissed ripping folds.
Don't let patriotism lag:
Train them so that they will love
Every star and stripe above.

As you teach their lips to pray,
Teach them always to be true
To the red, the white and blue;
Praise the Flag from day to day,
Tell the children at your knee
All the joys of liberty.

Let them know and understand
How the Flag was born and why,
Tell how brave men went to die
Gladly for their native land.
Whisper to them that they must
Make the Flag their sacred trust.

Love of country ever starts
In the home and at your knee,
There the Flag shall come to be
Shrined in patriotic hearts;
They shall gladly serve their land
When they know and understand.

SPUDDERS REFUSE TO VACATE THE CELLAR

Kroh and Works Able To Present Exporters With First of the Series

Special to the Times

BEAUMONT May 28—Despite the fact that they secured four doubles from the delivery of George Scott two of them over the fence the Wichita Falls Spudders were unable to make a lasting impression on him while Floyd Kroh who took the mound for Salm's men was nicked for nine hits six of which came in the fourth stanza and netted five runs and the game for the Exporters The final score was 7 to 3

Scott tightened up always when in a serious situation and was well supported while the Spudders made four errors behind Kroh

The Spudders held the edge in the first two rounds but were unable to score Miller hit for two bases in the second frame but was doubled off second by Demaggio after he took Works fly

The Exporters drew first blood in their half of the third Alexander drew a pass and reached third while Clark was throwing out Demaggio and McDonald was kicking one He scored on a single by Breaux

The Spudders tied it up in the fourth when Danny Gross walked stole second and went to third when Ripperton failed to cover the bag on Alexander's peg Clark's double to right center sent him across the pan Miller walked but Johnston threw Works out at first Scott covering the bag and also disposed of McElwee by spearing his hot grounder

Exporters Win in Fourth.

The Exporters clinched the fracas in this session A combination of six hits and two errors proved Kroh's undoing Johnston first up singled through the box He went to second on Ripperton's sacrifice and took third on Smith's fielder's choice to Works who failed to cover the bag Alexander dumped down a perfect bunt scoring Johnston and he was safe at first when Works dropped Kroh's throw Smith took second on the play and scored when Works threw the ball away attempting to head him off at third Alexander went to second on this heave and scored on Scott's belt over the middle station Scott went to second on the relay to the plate and took third on Demaggio's Texas leaguer to left He counted on Stansbury's single past third Demaggio and Stansbury pulled a successful double steal but the former was finally caught between third and home on an attempted squeeze Stansbury went to third on the play and tallied when Breaux doubled to left center Durst popped out to Gross for the final out

McDonald and Clark socked the ball over the right field fence in the sixth and counted once A walk to Demaggio and Breaux's second double added another to the Exporter tally in the same round

Queer Double Play.

The Spudders made the last run of the game in the seventh Works doubled over the right field fence and McElwee and Bischoff walked filling the bases Kroh sacrificed Works with a sacrifice fly to Durst McElwee and Bischoff then fell a time to a queer double play Bishoff was tossed to Stansbury forcing Bischoff to second Stansbury threw wild to Johnston in an effort to double Kroh but first and the ball bounded half off the wire back into first to Johnston who threw to the plate in plenty of time to catch McElwee

McDonald drew a $5 fine from Umpire Miller when he threw his bat down after a strike had been called on him in the sixth He drove a double over the palings a moment later

Kroh drew a big laugh from the crowd when he skidded and fell flat in an effort to get Alexander's hit in the ninth Score

CALIFORNIA SUPREME IN TRACK AND FIELD

Intercollegiates Won by Western College For First Time—Harvard Nosed Out by Half a Point.

HARVARD STADIUM, CAMBRIDGE Mass May 28—The championship of the colleges of the country in track and field went today to the west for the first time in athletic history University of California captured the cup in a meet marked by closest competition and by a final margin of half a point California's winning total was 2[illegible] points Harvard's for second place was 27 points

The result of the meet was in doubt when the sprinters took their places for the last event on the program the final heat of the 220 yard dash Harvard had 27 points and California 24½ The lone California entry R K Hutchinson was obliged to run into third place or better in order to win the championship for his university This he did and the three points which his third place gave to the Pacific coast institution supplied the University of California with a half point margin of victor

The final point score of the colleges was

California 27½ Harvard 27 Dartmouth 2 University of Pennsylvania 15½ Leland Stanford 15 Cornell 12 Princeton 12 Massachusetts Institute of Technology 10 Pennsylvania State 10 Yale 8 LaFayette 8 Syracuse 8 Georgetown 5 Rutgers 4 Holy Cross 3 Columbia 1½ Bowdoin 1

LEAVENWORTH KAN May 28—Jack Johnson former heavyweight champion outpointed John Allen of St Louis in two rounds and Joe Bevkens negro Philadelphia in five rounds during exhibition bouts in the federal penitentiary here this afternoon Allen suffered a dislocated right shoulder

Johnson toyed with Bevkens for four rounds and then quickly finished the match in the fifth with smashing blows to the face Five preliminaries resulted in three knockouts

WICHITANS WIN IN TOURNAMENT PAIRS

Coehran and Golding Defeat Other Teams at Dallas in Club Pairs Contest.

Not altogether bootless was the visit of local golfers to the Dallas tournament Not by no means Just to show that Wichita Falls is really on the golfing map Tom Cochran and Bud Golding Saturday captured the trophy for club pairs winning from two man teams representing a number of clubs

At the eighteenth hole they were tied with Buxton and Puterbaugh of Dallas but won out handily in six extra holes Cochran shot a 74 and Golding a 79 They defeated Munger and Munger of Dallas in the morning round

Local players who were at Dallas thought Jacobs would win out Saturday and certainly no one was expecting the terrific drubbing the title holder was administered by Dexter Jacobs is one of the coolest most deliberate players on record In his match with Henderson at the start of the tournament when he had to go three extra holes to win he nosed out by taking plenty of time for every stroke On one when a long putt was needed to save him from elimination he laid down on the green to sight the path his ball would have to travel and took other precautions which were justified when he finally made the putt

The Dallas tournament somewhat delayed play for the Scott Bower trophies at the local club and only a few matches have been finished More rapid progress will probably be made this week

S L McDowell claims that he had to pour water on his partner Gregg Rowe before the latter could continue playing the other day when McDowell made an eagle two on the second hole His drive was short of the bunker and his mashie shot cleared the obstruction and went into the cup

Golfers who want to vary golf with fishing may be interested to learn that a big three pound cut fish was caught Friday out of the irrigation ditch near the pump house Early morning golfers have several times seen big ones jumping for their breakfast at that point

One member of the club has it figured out that the trouble at Dallas was that all the Wichitans there were youngsters At the next tournament he is going to insist that such players as Doc Ross Walter Cline G C Wood and others of 45 and over represent the local club

The new greens on the new course are beginning to look mighty tempting and will probably be ready for play in a few weeks Work on the uncompleted portions of the new course continues steadily

NEW RECORD MADE IN 50-YARD SWIM FOR WOMEN

BLACK SPUDDERS TO MEET WORTHY FOE AT BALL PARK

Manager Steve Sargent claims that he has his Black Spudders ready to tear the Wichita (Kan) Red Sox apart tomorrow when they clash at Athletic park at 4 o'clock

The Red Sox are coming with an enviable reputation having won 17 out of 20 games played this season The local blacks have participated in only three games but romped away with two of those

Big Boy Hicks, the twirler who turned the Waco Navigators back twice has been especially groomed for tomorrow's battle and a thrilling pitchers battle is looked for

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W Larkin

The boys passed up a wonderful chance to gain All the second division clubs lost.

The Exporters stole everything but Bischoff's mask and protector We thought there was an excuse Friday as Marshall was wild and might have had Smiler hopping around after bad pitches But Kroh has a reputation for keeping base runners close to the bag

Incidentally that's about the only reputation Floyd has lived up to since coming to the struggling Spudders

Walter Salm has been unjustifiably panned many times for not yanking his hurlers but we know of no possible excuse for allowing Kroh to stay in there yesterday in the fourth when five runs were sent over

Floyd received rank support There's no doubt about that but he was hit hard and often just the same Walter had half a dozen twirlers sitting on the bench but probably had them wearing themselves out warming up He must have had an excuse for leaving Floyd in, but it would be interesting to know what it is

'Babe' Ruth joined the squad yesterday and was sent in to try and break up the game in the ninth Another thing we cannot quite fathom is why he was allowed to sit on the bench while Kroh went in to bat with the bags full and none out earlier in the game Suppose the reason is he is a left handed hitter and there's a short right field at Beaumont That's hardly sufficient

The Spudders got enough men on bases during the game to keep the Airdome crowd hoping the tide would turn every inning The largest crowd of the week was present Today's game will not be called until 4 30 owing to a memorial celebration in Beaumont

Either Hollingsworth or Darrough should work for the Spudders The boys got a lot of bad baseball out of their systems yesterday and maybe if Hollis' receives the assignment he'll have some decent fielding behind him It's coming to him

We wish to go on record as stating that we are heartily in favor of the plan of the Rooters club to hold a Buddy Tanner day next Friday You never miss the water till the well runs dry and Buddy was never missed until he was stricken with appendicitis A more worthy understudy could not be found than Danny Groot but Danny is not Buddy" and there's no two ways about it Do players on the team appreciate a day set aside for him any more than Buddy' As Buddy said to us last spring when he was feeling fit A man who would not play his best and work hard for Wichita Falls fans ought to be barred from the game They're the best bunch I ever played for And "Buddy' didn't get in on a lot of the gravy that was here last year either He played hard for Walter Salm and the fans—not for Buddy Tanner

Though considerable comment was occasioned last year by the records which were established in the majors in the matter of circuit drives the 1920 figures appear destined for a decisive eclipse in the present campaign A total of 370 circuit smashes was set up in the American last year and the Heydler loop hit the 261 mark Though the younger organization led by more than 100 drives a greater increase has been made in the National this year More than one third of their 1920 total has already been made in the National circuit with the playing schedule only about one fifth completed

Reasons for this increased hitting have been expounded by nearly every player and fan in the country They're too numerous to mention But of them all it looks very much as if a livelier ball were the only answer No doubt the restrictions imposed on the hurlers have been partly responsible, but these restrictions are hardly the cause of the home runs Too many batters who used to hit for the circuit have become sluggers Their physical strength has not increased but the distance of their drives has The manufacturers of baseballs used in the big leagues state that the only difference in the product is the brand of wool that has been used recently That must be the answer for it's a cinch the ball is livelier and it's also a cinch that circuit drivers are blooming where they never boomed before

THERE—UP—AND BACK

LONDON, May 29

I

I saw him first a kid—
A hard free-swing devil in the Bush
Fast as the winds that sweep the open plains
As fast as the lightning flashes down the sky
With rippling muscles wrought of tempered steel
Steel springs within his arm
And in his legs
And in his face
The burning glow of Youth
Raw Youth that turned his labor into play
And made him romp and revel
Out on the field
And laugh at errors that were but a part
Of all the fun
That he was having there

II

And then I saw him in a higher league
A kid just coming to know his worth
Who looked big
And dreamed of Big League Fame
The plaudits of ten thousand raving fans
And all the hip hip and the rest of it
That hailed Another Cobb
A coming Trix
With endless speed
And power for the peg

III

I saw him next
When he had reached the top
A mighty ruler in the Realm of Swat
Where raving thousands
Cheered his regal sway
And all the world lay at his steel shod feet
Where blaring headlines
Gave his Batting Eye
High place with War
And armies on the march
Or precedence above
Such tawdry things as diplomats and czars
For he could hit
With any man that lived
And range afar for hits that others made
And so for ten years he held his place
And saw the world but in the flashing glow
Of easy fame
And royal circumstances

IV

And then I saw the arm once made of steel
Begin to rust and crack and lose its snap
I saw the drag that came upon his speed
As cheers turned into jeers
Where day by day
His waning flows popped into waiting hands
I saw the smile fade out upon his face
That turned, bewildered to a crowd that once
Had been his friend but now
Was shrieking Take him out
Back to the Bush you lonehead on the jump
To get a circle go out somewhere [illegible]
And still the [illegible]ered
Why he was a crab

V

I saw him next
Back in the Bush again
The circle finished and the journey done
An old and broken man at thirty-three
Who played as in a dream
And who above
The taunting jeers that came
From tank town fans that jeered his labored play
Still heard from far away,
From other years
The mighty roar of twenty thousand men
Who called upon him for the winning hit
Who shrieked and stamped and bowed their mad acclaim
When from his bat the streaking missile flew
His rough red hand was pulled across his eyes
But still he could not wipe the dream away
Of some lost June
Back in another age
Where Youth raw Youth
Was sweeping him along
Not mocking in its course
A fond dream

VI

And still with him the stands they sit and say
Well pretty soft for that bird getting paid
For having fun
Like this each afternoon"

Plans are Well Under Way For "Buddy Tanner Day" At Athletic Park Next Friday

"Let's give 'Buddy' a rousing reception and show him that we love and appreciate the best and hardest working shortstop in the Texas league.

With that thought in mind the 'Rooters club has gone to work in earnest to make June 3 (Buddy Tanner Day) a day that will long be remembered both by Buddy and the local fans Buttons and megaphones have been ordered and no loyal fan should be without one next Friday at Athletic park when the club comes back from its southern sojourn

Buddy" will be with the club though he will not be in any condition to play In fact it is doubtful whether he will be able to take an active part in the game the rest of the season The writer was in Fort Worth when he was stricken with appendicitis and needless to mention the attack came like a bolt out of a clear sky With his characteristic gameness, Buddy kept the real truth to himself for some time

The day before he was taken to the hospital he made a couple of wild heaves to first base though they did not prove to be costly One of them got by Works, but the latter managed to stop the second and get the runner by a phenomenal play Buddy came back to the bench, but he had no alibis to offer He stuck in there the rest of the day and to all appearances there was nothing wrong with him. Fans and players alike thought he was simply having one of those 'off days' that the best of them have Little did they realize the true state of affairs.

Forced to Give Up.

That night Buddy was forced to give up and call for a doctor Not until then did his mates and the writer realize how he was suffering The doctor advised absolute rest for a few days, but did not think at that time that an immediate operation was necessary He grew worse the next day, however, and was rushed to the hospital that night and the operation performed

While he was lying in bed previous to the operation the writer asked him why he did not ask to be taken out of the game when every step he took was agony for him He replied "What was the use? The club isn't getting the breaks now and the absence of a regular might discourage the boys I thought for a while that it was only a strain that would wear away, but before the game was over I knew there was something radically wrong I don't think any of the boys would have quit under the circumstances If the club was going along smoothly it would have been different

That's the spirit 'Buddy' has always had while wearing a Spudder uniform It never made any difference to him whether the club was a half a dozen runs to the good or the bad He was always in there fighting and there never has been a Spudder who could hold a candle to him when it came to 'pep' and encouragement With him it has always been a case of the Spudders first and Tanner next If ever a player deserved to be remembered by the fans Buddy is the one

The special Buddy Tanner' committee composed of W J Grisham Dr L F Stripling and H F Weldon will see to it that a suitable remembrance will be given him

The center section of the grandstand will be roped off for the members of the club Friday and all will be asked to abandon their boxes that day and sit in a group The general committee plans to have a membership of at least 1,000 and club dues for the year will be $1.00 The biggest portion of the money thus taken in will be used for Buddy's gift and the members will receive megaphones and buttons which can be obtained at Stoecker Bros Tillons drug store Phelps cigar store Loeb Liepolds and Wilford Harrison drug company any time after Monday Members of the working committee will also have them on hand at the park The megaphones will also be of the folding type which can be easily carried in the pocket

The Rooters club is by no means limited to the mile fans There is a goodly number of 1 mile fans among the Wichita Falls base ball bugs and the committee hopes to have every one of them in the club They are especially in it to John and any one desiring to get their services will be welcomed at a special meeting of the committee which will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Elks club rooms

The general committee includes W H Street Clarence Moore Jimmy Maxwell Harry Bess C P Carter A M Miller W S Burles George Jehle Wilford Harrison Eugene Liepold George Morley Harold F Haynes F Sanney Pelt and Homer P Lowry

Mrs N O Moore Mrs Paul W Larkin and Mrs L L Rauch will head the women committee

DON'T FORGET HIM

BUDDY TANNER

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME WAS PLAYED FOR A CANNON

DENVER May 28.—A revolutionary war cannon was the prize for which Rutgers College and Princeton University first played organized inter collegiate football in November 1869 according to Homer D Boughner of Denver who was a member of the Princeton team

There were no regulation uniforms in those days and there were 25 to 2 men on a team as Boughner remembers Holding the ball or running with it violated the rules as did holding or tripping of players

Rutgers won the first game six goals to four The return game was won by Princeton November 13 1869, eight goals to nothing Boughner said The deciding game was never played the faculties of the schools believing the interest of the students over the games was detrimental to scholarship

Later Boughner said Princeton won the cannon

RICHIE MITCHELL INSISTS HE IS FAR FROM THROUGH

MILWAUKEE WIS May 28.—Richie Mitchell whose gameness against overwhelming odds has made him the prize fight idol of the central west has no intention of retiring from the ring despite recent reverses Following his sensational losing fight against champion Benny Leonard in New York Mitchell met defeat twice at the hands of Rock Kansas and lost a newspaper decision to Johnny Mendelsohn The defeat caused reports that the Milwaukee fighter would retire but Mitchell insists that he is far from through and after a short rest will be back facing the topnotchers.

COBB AND SPEAKER PRESSING HEILMAN FOR BATTING TITLE

Detroit Slugger Still on Top in American While Hornsby Holds Lead in National.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Managing a ball club seems to be conductive to heavy hitting for Ty Cobb pilot of the Detroit Tigers and Tris Speaker manager of the Cleveland Indians are giving Harry Heilman of Detroit a terrific fight for the batting leadership of the American league

Cobb boosted his mark from 395 last week to 411 for this week according to averages released today and which included games of last Wednesday while Speaker raised his last week's average of 378 to 405 Heilman although he suffered a batting slump, is 14 points ahead of Cobb Heilman's average is 426 as compared with 454 a week ago

Severeid of St Louis also has come to the front in grand style The slugging catcher of the Browns who was hitting 300 a week ago has attained a mark of 391 and is in fourth place

Babe Ruth the king of homerun hitters ran into a slump when the Yankees hit the western trail of the east His batting averages dropped from 378 to 346 The big slugger failed to get any four baggers while in Chicago but in the final game at St Louis Wednesday he crashed out a drive which was said to be the longest made at the Brown's park and brought his total string of homeruns up to 13 Shocker was pitching

Harris of Washington stole two bases while the senators were touring the west and is showing the way to the base stealers with 10 thefts

Other leading batters for 20 or more games Brower Washington 375 Sisler St Louis 375 Tobin St Louis 358 Stephens Cleveland 355 Williams St Louis 352 Ruth New York 346

Hornsby Still Tops Nationals

Grimes of the Chicago Cubs who is filling Merkle's shoes at first base struck his batting stride during his first invasion of the east and climbed from fifteenth place to fifth in the National league batting race Most of last week's leaders went into a slump Rogers Hornsby the St Louis star dropping from 437 to 425 However he is safely entrenched at the top of the batters of the National league who have played 10 or more games ahead New York catcher is runner up to Hornsby with an average of 347 while McHenry of St Louis who was in seventh place a week ago is batting 341 and is in third position Meusel of Pittsburgh who threatened to displace the St Louis star a week ago dropped to fourth place with 339 Groh who a week ago had 326 is pushing Rabbit with 338

George Kelly the New York Giants slugger who is leading the National league homerun hitters failed to add to his total of eight and now is five behind his American league rival Babe Ruth

P Lee of Cincinnati failed to increase his stolen base record He leads however, with eight thefts

Other leading batters Johnston Brooklyn 350 Tierney, Pittsburgh 352 Kelly New York 347 Barber Chicago 342 Hargrave Cincinnati 340 Cutshaw Pittsburgh 340

Russell Climbing in Association.

Reb Russell the old Chicago White Sox pitcher who is playing in the outfield for Minneapolis looks like the Babe Ruth of the American association The big southpaw who took to outfielding after his arm refused to give the old ball the zip has batted himself up to a place among the leaders In addition he bagged four homeruns during the past week and took the lead for circuit drives with fine under his belt 416 Cramer Milwaukee 403 four ply clouters a week ago with seven failed to add to his string Reb's batting average was increased from 329 to 374 All the leaders of a week ago suffered slumps but remained in practically their same positions Butler of Kansas City tops the bunch with 444 Brief a teammate is sharing honors with Hauser of Milwaukee for runner up with an average of 417

Other leading batters Lear Milwaukee Baird Indianapolis 392 Kirke Louisville 389 Russell Minneapolis 374 Miller St Paul 371 Gooch Kansas City 370

New Leader in Western

Davis of Tulsa made the best showing with the willow among the Western league batters during the past week The Tulsa star batted himself from twenty-eighth place to a berth among the first ten He is in seventh place with an average of 376 compared with 317 a week ago Jack Lelivelt of Omaha was unable to keep up the pace and dropped from third place to eleventh Paddock of Sioux City who topped the batters a week ago dropped to fourth with an average of 379 while Metz a teammate who was runner-up moved to the top of the ladder with an average of 409 Walker of Joplin, who has not played during the past week is the runner up with 397 while Robertson his teammate is third with 396

Other leading Western league batters Harper Oklahoma City 376 East Wichita 378 Davis Tulsa 376 Washburn Wichita 370 Beck Wichita 366 Butler Wichita 364

Hungling Still Hitting Well.

Harper of Little Rock went into a batting streak in the Southern association and is in fourth place with an average of 366 a gain of 53 points in a week I M Boone New Orleans continues to top the list with a mark of 404 with Hungling of Memphis the runner-up with 385 and McLarry of Memphis is in third place with 370

Anderson of Chattanooga with his six circuit drives of a week ago failed to add to this total but continues to hold the lead in this department Emery of Birmingham caught up with Stewart, a teammate in stolen bases and they are tied for base stealing honors with 13 thefts each

Other leading batters Don Brown Little Rock 362 Guyon Atlanta 361 Frierson Nashville 355 M Millan Memphis 354 Stellbauer Nashville 351 Land Little Rock 350

JUST BASEBALL

Some people are never satisfied It was stated that Babe Ruth soon had a chance to equal the major league record for home runs held by Gravy Cravath with 119 And immediately some statistician comes along and says the record is held by Sam Thompson who made 120 homers during his big league career

The most stupendous job of hitting in this hitful season is being done by the Kansas City Blues Averages released last week show them hitting .371 as a team and they had scored 226 runs in their first 21 games Butler Brief and Cochran all were hitting over 400 and the weakest hitting regular on the team was Freiberg with .276

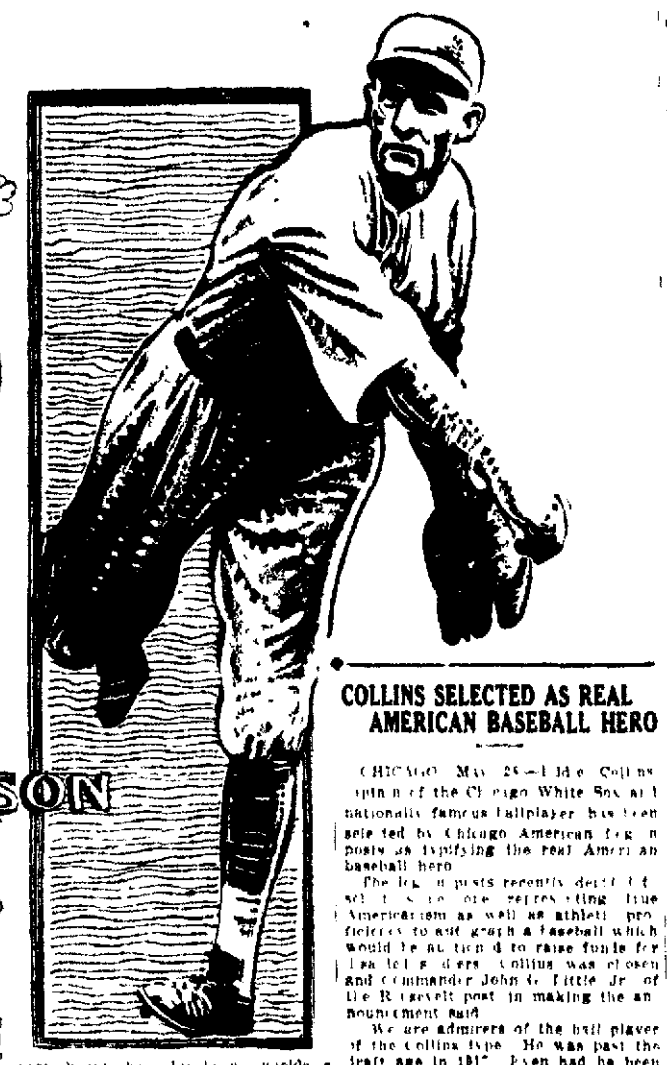
They make real home runs at the Braves' field in Boston Southworth hit one so far recently in a game with the Reds that he was at third base before Ed Rousch even reached the pellet 500 feet from the plate in center field Southworth walked on in from third Such a drive into the right field stand at the Polo Grounds would count for two home runs

Bobby Stoll now with Atlanta complains an injustice was done him in a report that he does not like his Cracker berth and was on his way back to Fort Worth He is NOT to be released to Fort Worth Moreover he is playing good ball for Atlanta and giving the club his best services Bobby suspects the story came from somewhere in Texas but as a matter of fact it came from some point in the Southern

In a Cub Giant game played in the last series Speed Martin went in as a relief pitcher in the ninth inning none out none on base score tied Earl Smith at bat Martin threw one ball It landed against Smith's bat and settled in the right field grandstand some 260 feet distant and the game was over One pitched ball, one defeat for Martin

ANOTHER ST. LOOIÉ STAR

—By Wood Cowan



Jacobson outfielder of the St Louis Browns is not only a terrific hitter but one of the most sensational fielders in the game

Back in 1909 a big burly Swede joined the Rock Island club He was a tall ambling loose jointed gorilla of a boy weighing around 200 pounds This was Jacobson And because of his appearance he was christened Baby Doll The name has stuck to him ever since

His minor league career took him to Mobile and Chattanooga before he came to St Louis for Pitcher Bill James and some cash In 1917 he was in the navy and it wasn't until two years later that Jacobson had his real chance He ended his last two seasons well above 300 in hitting and few fielders can surpass him in defense

Because of his home-run record the average fan thinks Babe Ruth the biggest and strongest player in the game But just compare Babe with the Baby Doll —Jacobson stands 6 feet 4½ and weighs about 205 to Babe's 6 feet 1 inch and 200 flat Ruth is inclined to be a little fat while Jacobson is a big boned huge man in a rough and tumble strap well put on dough on that Baby Doll

In hitting these two giants are very different Ruth swings putting his shoulders and body into it somewhat like a golfer driving from the tee follow through and all Jacobson uses his arms only in his batting He is a powerful and long hitter but because of his method will never equal Ruth as a home run clouter Ruth uses a very heavy bat Jacobson wields a light one and is a wrist hitter while Babe is a shoulder hitter

The St Louis phenom is not a graceful runner but when a man is gifted with a pair of legs that can take him in to running nine feet at stride in rapid succession he is covering a lot of territory And if Jacobson gets within 15 feet of a ball he can reach it

A club with a slugger and Jacobson should with any kind of pitching be in the money

COLLINS SELECTED AS REAL AMERICAN BASEBALL HERO

CHICAGO May 28.—Eddie Collins captain of the Chicago White Sox and nationally famous ballplayer has been selected by Chicago American legion posts as typifying the real American baseball hero

The legion posts recently decided that such a hero should be one representing true Americanism as well as athletic proficiency to and asked a baseball which would be attached to raise funds for baseball players Collins was chosen and commander John G Little Jr of the Roosevelt post in making the announcement said

We are admirers of the ball player of the Collins type He was past the draft age in 1917 Even had he been within the draft age he had a family dependent on him and easily could have claimed exemption On the other hand he could have of joined any number of swivel chair jobs in Washington and have come a camp athletic instructor Instead he enlisted as a private in the marines and was promoted to the rank of corporal for valiant service He passed up the soft jobs to endure the hardships of the toughest jobs in a real man's army and never murmured

Carpentier Has Hard Time Ducking Ladies Invading His Camp

MANHASSET N Y May 28—Georges Carpentier has temperament of the sort usually attributed to the ingenue of musical comedy When in the mood of the gay boulevardier the challenger is wont to slick his blond pompadour smile and be nice for his many feminine visitors

Women get into the camp in various ways For instance Oh I must see him I am a cousin of the man who took him fishing last Sunday or My husband is a close friend of Headquarters Well We are sisters of the ladies who are in this place

But there are days when Georges seems to be all in as yesterday for example when he slipped through the back door and arrived at the gymnasium unseen

There he spied three strangers a girl and two men who had told the sentinels he was attached to Georges entourage the war and the other woman who claimed to have known Carpentier well in Paris

Carpentier inquired their identity The matter was explained to the gentleman assayed [illegible] Peeved then Georges left the gym

He started in English but lacking vocabulary switched to French and ordered his secretary to tell them it would be an elephant and which meant get out

The visitors departed Georges called and he came back here

Later Georges said the world be sparring partner as he pummeled the fence in a bit to win easy

MORE FANS DRAWN THROUGH GATE BY EXCURSION BLOWS THAN BY PITCHERS' BATTLES

The reaction toward more effective pitching and lighter hitting in the major leagues is manifest in the decision of the National League club owners to allow the use of resin by pitchers The feeling pervades at least among the magnates who comprise one half of the rule making bods that the restrictions imposed more than a year ago handicap pitchers too much and with this important part of the game weakened the hitters are running amuck

There may be sound logic for a partial return to the conditions which prevailed up to the time that the emery ball the shine ball and kindred freak deliveries were legislated out of the game It was in this crusade that resin was placed under the ban leaving the hoxman only his natural skill at gripping the sphere to figure in his campaign against the batsman There can be no denying that pitching is less effective than it was two years ago and that the converse of the problem which affects the batsman is also true But there is such a thing as overzealousness in tampering with the rules Likewise there is the fable of the goose and the golden egg which the club owners might ponder over before returning to conditions of the past

One has only to glance over the attendance figures of baseball games in both major or minor leagues to reach the conclusion that the public likes to see plenty of hitting The 1920 season was a record breaker from the point of attendance and so far this season the clubs have played to greater crowds than were attracted to the early games of last season If the brand of baseball were not satisfactory there would not be so many instances of capacity crowds and barrel gates two features that were almost unknown in the days of 1 to 2 1 games or contests of that class Pitchers duels have their moments of excitement but they do not provide the thrill that comes when a player hits into the pasture beyond the fence

Prefer Hitting to Pitching

The home runs feats of Ruth last year and of Ruth and Kelly this year have drawn more fans to baseball than a hundred games in which the pitching overshadowed everything else Fans who are pulling for a home run victory in the heat of pennant race never fail to accord generous applause even when the blow is delivered by the player of an opposing team Apparently it is what the fan most desires to see If the club owners have the best interests of the fan at heart, and that means the best interest of the club owner as well it would be wise to move slowly in any campaign to restrict hitting If the fans begin to stay away from the parks because of too much hitting it will be time to act but that day is apparently far distant

It is interesting to note in regard to pitching statistics that boxmen have only to look over the records of Pete Alexander Mays Tones Cavaleski and a few others to discover that if a pitcher is able to the really select he can get along without any help from the rule makers

DEXTER WINS GOLF TITLE FROM JACOBY

Former Title Holder is Off Game And is Defeated 9 Up and 8 to Play.

DALLAS May 28—Playing almost perfect golf with a few erratic shots, in the 36 holes to decide the championship Charles L Dexter Jr of the Dallas Country club defeated his clubmate Louis Jacoby 9 up and 8 to play, in the final match of the annual tournament of the Texas Golf association today

Jacoby who relinquished the title to Dexter was badly off his game and at the end of the morning round the match had practically been conceded to Dexter. Jacoby played well in the afternoon despite severe disheartening breaks, and but for a remarkable 40-foot putt from across a bunker to the cup that gained Dexter a half on the 21st the match might have gone further

Dexter has been a prominent figure in Texas golf circles several years having been runner-up in a previous tournament Charles V Rotan of Houston defeated him in 1918, the year that Dexter completed the southern championship He had beaten Rotan that same year in the invitation finals at Houston

Dallas won another championship flight trophy when A H Badger defeated R Kampmann of San Antonio in the 36 hole match for the Texas cup the flight consolation Walter Walthall of San Antonio trimmed J W Andrews of Dallas 5 up and 4 in the Dallas cup finals while L L Dent beated M Gordon four up and two, for the Country club cup J W Scarbrough of Austin won the Trinity cup from S L Reinhardt of Dallas one up The consolation in this event was won by R H Freeman from M C Turner

CARPENTIER SHOWS SOME REAL BOXING

French Challenger Steps Through Three Fast Rounds in Presence of Trainers and Friends.

MANHASSET, N Y May 28—In the presence of his trainers and a few personal friends, Georges Carpentier displayed this afternoon some of the ring cunning with which he hopes to win the world's heavyweight boxing championship

In a full three-minute round with Italian Joe Gans the challenger tried his speed and on several occasions the sturdy little Newark fighter found himself punching at a ring post instead of a blond Frenchman Georges was too fast for him Carpentier appeared to be developing a shift patterned after that for which Stanley Ketchel was famous

Then came the tall Paul Journee for two rounds Manager Descamps had announced yesterday that Journee would not be able to work until next week because of an injured arm but Journee did not appear to be suffering this afternoon He went at Georges full speed

Carpentier permitted his 190 pound sparring partner to work as he pleased on his jaw and stomach and laughed at the blows as if they were paper wads from a school boy's bean shooter

Then the challenger went to work himself and displayed his flying knockout punch from a new angle When preparing to launch this blow today he assumed a half crouch In this position he appeared to keep his body as far away from his opponent as posible and reached out with his punches

From this half crouch he went almost to a full bend then hurled himself upward with an overhand right Recovering quickly he used an upper cut The three rounds over he finished the day's work with 20 minutes in the gymnasium

AMERICAN SOLDIER DEAD REMEMBERED

here with us and that they understand why we are assembled

I like to feel that our new resolves spring from the rich heritage that they have left us The season should symbolize a new consecration of our lives to service It should cause us to reawaken our own patriotism and renew our ideals of brotherly love and devotion to country It should move us to search our souls for evidence that life is not a mere selfish pursuit of pleasure or wealth or fame It should teach us to understand that each one is called upon to contribute to the well-being of mankind and that the greater our devotion and our sacrifice, the more worthy will he our contribution to our fellow man'

'Lest we forget,' said Secretary Weeks, "there comes a time in the spring of each year when the nation turns from its business and industry and its citizens lay aside the employments of their preferences and trades to gather in the secluded and shady paths of our national cemeteries to do honor to the nation's dead It is a day when we turn our faces to the past instead of the future and recall the deeds of the heroic dead whose sacrifices have made and preserved us a nation

I do not think we could adopt a more beautiful way of remembering our dead than the annual custom of placing flowers on the graves of those who have passed through the gateway and it is on memorial day, in the presence of our dead, that Americans can renew their faith in our ideals and institutions and reaffix their pledge of unceasing loyalty to the republic

PLAN TO REORGANIZE ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

To be in Charge of Department of Justice—New Commissioner to be Named.

WASHINGTON, May 28—Declaring the present prohibition enforcement system is ineffective, wasteful and demoralizing in many of its aspects, Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee announced tonight that conferences would be held next week between his committee and Commissioner Blair of the bureau of internal revenue looking to changes in enforcement methods

The whole subject of "rehabilitation of the enforcement system will be gone over Mr Penrose said, adding that the advisability of transferring the prohibition unit from the bureau of internal revenue to the department of justice the designating of an enforcement superintendent for each of the states or for each judicial district and other suggestions would be taken up

Senator Penrose said he personally was in favor of the department of justice taking over the enforcement work The question will be discussed with Attorney General Daugherty before the final committee takes action, he said Secretary Mellon already has expressed approval of the proposed transfer and Mr Blair is understood to favor the step

One of Mr Blair's first acts as commissioner it was said tonight, would be designation of a new prohibition commissioner in place of John F Kramer For the place, Newton Fairbanks of Ohio has been frequently mentioned

PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT OF BRITISH STRIKE TO BE REFERRED TO VOTE

LONDON, May 28—By vote of the striking miners' representatives and British mine owners, the government's scheme for bringing about a permanent settlement of the coal strike has been referred to the district boards of the two organizations

Separate conferences were held this afternoon by the two factions, to consider Lloyd George's proposals which include the formation of a national wage board consisting of three men or a national coal wage commissioner having power of arbitration

The owners are expected to report their decisions at meetings next Wednesday, while the miners adjourned until next Friday

Lloyd George has issued an ultimatum to both sides declaring that unless a settlement was reached at once, he would institute legislative action to enforce an arbitrary settlement

SHIPPING BOARD AND THE ENGINEERS AGREE

Secretary Davis Turns His Attention to Shipowners in Effort for Settlement.

WASHINGTON May 28—With an agreement reached between Chairman Benson of the shipping board and representatives of the marine engineers in the controversy over reduction of marine wages Secretary Davis prepared to turn his efforts today to overcoming objection of the American ship owners association to participation in the agreement

Secretary Davis left New York last night immediately after the agreement had been effected

SHIP OWNERS' ASSOCIATION INSIST ON A REDUCTION

NEW YORK May 28—The American steamship owners association stands pat on its position that marine wages must be cut fifteen per cent and that it will sign no agreements with seagoing unions said a statement issued today by officers of the association

At the offices of the Atlantic and Gulf coast conference of the marine engineers beneficial association, it was said the committee which conferred with Admiral Benson at Washington had no authority to effect a final settlement.

CONFER REGARDING TERMS OF PROPOSED AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON May 28 — Representatives of marine oilers, and firemen, cooks and stewards, water tenders, radio operators and seamen conferred today with Hugh L Kerwin, director and Fred Davis of the board of conciliation, regarding terms of a proposed agreement for settling their controversy with the shipping board on wages and working conditions, but the discussion went over until Tuesday when a tentative agreement will be considered in conference with Secretary Davis and Chairman Benson of the board

While the unions were understood to have agreed to the same general terms as those accepted by the marine engineers it was said certain working conditions which were not involved in the engineers dispute were considered today and must be put into any agreement reached This agreement, like that of the engineers would apply only to shipping board vessels and no efforts to be made as yet to place the terms before the private ship owners.

Price Always Kept Low And The Reasons Why
THE Chandler price has always been kept low without sacrifice of quality. This has been made possible by the most efficient management, the most modern factory and the highest financial credit with sources of supply, together with the fact that we have always built one chassis, developed and refined as the years have passed, but never abandoned, because constantly more popular.
Some lines have manufactured simultaneously as many as three or four distinct models—not styles of bodies, but chasses. They have come and gone. You can probably imagine what such a policy means in manufacturing cost, in selling prices and in the resale value of such cars.
Chandler resale value is relatively higher than that of any car, after a like period of service.

WANT PRINCIPLES OF EX-SENATOR BAILEY MORE WIDELY READ

About two-score of ex-Senator Bailey's friends here held a meeting at the Kemp hotel Saturday afternoon and took steps to increase the circulation of the publication edited by Mr Bailey, the Democratic Review The ex-senator did not attend the meeting

Mr Bailey's friends here feel that the principles which he advocated in the 1920 campaign, and which he is promulgating through his magazine should be brought to the attention of democrats everywhere, and that this can best be done by increasing the number of the magazine's readers. At the meeting Saturday afternoon, the Wichitans present underwrote about 100 subscriptions to the magazine, which they will have sent where they believe it will do the most good

In view of Mr Bailey's previous assertion that he was not editing the magazine to make money, but to spread faith in the governmental principles he advocates, the local Bailey men felt that their action might be judged as an unselfish one A committee headed by G C Wood, C F. Spencer, W N Bonner and Judge Bazz was placed in charge of the subscription matter

PRISONERS IN JAIL MUST HAVE ICE WATER SAYS SHERIFF SMITH

A skating rink has just been completed and will be ready today for those who want to take a whirl on the rollers.

As soon as it is dark enough a free moving picture show will be given near the pavilion seats have been installed for the public and a large attendance is expected. The free movie is to be a regular Sunday feature hereafter.

LIST OF "DESERTERS" CHECKED BY BOARD, TO BE ISSUED SOON

Wichita county's list of draft deserters has been gone over by members of the county draft board and will be returned shortly to Eighth corps headquarters who will publish it.

If the names on the list two were known previously to the draft board one is already under arrest and the other is being sought.

If the other names there is little trace. It is not believed that the list when issued will contain the names of any young men of this county who were actually in the service.

PLANS ARE OUTLINED FOR PUBLIC PARK IN ELECTRA

ELECTRA, TEXAS, May 29.—At a general meeting of the chamber of commerce Friday night plans were announced for the establishment of a public park in Electra.

The chamber of commerce has employed a landscape architect of Wichita Falls who is preparing plans which include a swimming pool, play ground and wading pools for children a miniature lake and artistic arrangement of native trees and shrubs.

The improvement of this park will be under the direction of the city commissioners cooperating with the chamber of commerce.

MARKETS

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Trading in wheat corn and oats was dull and featureless on the Chicago board of trade today. Only professional traders seemed to be in the market and their trades were mostly of the evening-up variety. Closing prices were generally a fraction higher except for May wheat which was bid up in the final hour for a net gain of 2½c to 2¾c. July wheat finished ⅛c to ¼c net higher. Corn options were ⅛c higher and oats varied from ⅛c lower for May to ⅛c to ¼c higher for other months.

Business in July wheat was done with an eye to the action of May. There was some support of deferred deliveries on the breaks but about equal selling orders came out on bulges. Crop reports were somewhat more favorable but absence of export and foreign exchange developments made the situation too uncertain to admit of extensive trading.

Corn showed moderate firmness early, but weakened selling started. Oats followed corn. Provisions averaged higher.

LATE AUTO NOTES.

D. L. Fritz of Fritz Motor Co. is in Indianapolis at the Marmon factory to arrange for the delivery of additional cars. Looks like business.

Dixon reports "We are getting rid of a few of 'em right along."

Somers of Victory Motors was out of town most of last week and is going again. We don't know what it is all about but we would like to be in on it.

Moulder reports that conditions in the automobile business are fundamentally sound as evidenced by the numerous second-hand car sales last week.

Since the reduction in the price of Chevrolets Cochran says he is going to be pretty hard to catch. He states that he has delivered three new cars this week and three used cars and that if business improves in the next two months as it has in the last three weeks he will need a carload every morning.

VANSTON-BROWN WEDDING HERE WEDNESDAY EVENING

The marriage of Maurice Clyde Vanston and Miss Imogene Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown, was solemnized in a very beautiful ceremony Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Twelfth street.

The ceremony was said by Rev. O. L. Fowers of the First Baptist church, the bride and groom entering together and standing under a bower of sweet peas, gladioli and violets in the living room. The wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Oster, with the violin obligato by Miss Martha Oster.

Following the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Vanston were honorees at an informal reception at the home, featured by the cutting of the bride's cake. The cake was served by members of the house party with ice cream in white lily molds, and toasted nuts. Mrs. Vanston wore a tailored suit of midnight blue Poiret twill and carried, during the ceremony, a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Vanston left for Houston, expecting to make their home at 1104 Grace street. Miss Brown is one of the well known young women of Wichita Falls, having attended school and graduated from Wichita Falls high here before attending Baylor college at Belton. She has been secretary to Principal Ryder of the high school for some time. Mr. Vanston is connected with the M. K. & T. railroad company here, and is also well known.

Guests at the wedding and reception included relatives and a few girl friends of the bride. They were: Messrs. and Mesdames Jerry Schaefer, W. H. Bachman, J. M. Brown, Charles Prelbe, F. W. Snyder, C. M. Doke, and Dan W. Oster; Mrs. J. S. Schr and Mrs. John Strong of Denison, Mrs. Walter Jones of Altus, Okla., sister of the groom, and Mrs. Uhrich, and Misses Josephine Bachman, Vella May Snyder, Lucy May Preibe, Elsie Preibe, Elsie and Martha Oster, Lydia Uhrich, Bessie Lee Bartlett and Lucila Morgan.

MISS LUCILE HOLT WEDS WILLIAM KELTON GREEVER

VERNON, TEXAS, May 28.—Relatives and friends of Miss Lucile Holt and William Kelton Greever were surprised late Thursday by the marriage of the young couple at the residence of Rev. Gus Ramage. The marriage is a culmination of a romance that commenced in grade school days.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Cecil Storey and was born and reared in Vernon. After attending local schools, she studied at Our Lady of Victory school in Fort Worth, Baylor university, Texas Christian university and Southern Methodist university, where she was in attendance last year.

Mr. Greever is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Greever and he was also born and reared here. After attending local schools, Mr. Greever studied at Clarendon college for two years. He is associated in business with his father.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HONORS MRS. ARCENEAUX TUESDAY

Mrs. J. E. Arceneaux, wife of the pastor of the Church of Christ was the honoree at a beautifully planned and most enjoyable birthday party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Moore, on which occasion Mrs. Moore, Mrs. C. B. Melton, and Mrs. W. P. Thurman were hostesses.

About seventy-five guests, members of the church and other friends, made up the party and tendered congratulations to the honoree. The Moore home was beautifully decorated in pink and white, spring flowers being the central motif. A hand-painted guest book was presided over by Miss Survella Shultz, which was later presented Mrs. Arceneaux. After an hour of informal visiting the guest of honor was asked to come into the dining room, where she was presented with a birthday cake by Mrs. Moore. Miss Marian Poe then read a poem clipping from Eugene Field, and with it presented a big basket of gifts. The presentation was very much of a surprise to the guest of honor, and she responded very happily to the good wishes.

Refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake, carrying out the color scheme, were served.

TRUCK GROWERS SELL OUT AGAIN BEFORE 9; MANY WOMEN MARKET

Women of Wichita Falls are getting the "public market" habit, since the opening of the new Civic league and Truck Growers open air market down below the post office, and are getting produce fresh from the furrow, as it were.

The truck growers sold out again Saturday morning by 9 o'clock, even with an increase in producers present. A much increased supply of truck is expected within the next two weeks, with the new corn and other June vegetables coming on.

The growers are perfecting their organization to co-operate with and better serve the retail trade as well as the wholesale.

HOSTESS TRIO HONORS MISS STALEY THURSDAY

Misses Iva and Seuda Willis were joint hostesses with Mrs. William B. Jones at the Willis home Thursday afternoon, honoring Miss Fleet Staley, June bride-elect, whose engagement was recently announced.

The reception suite was very beautifully decorated with flowers, the roses being especially lovely, and bridge and "42" provided entertainment until late in the afternoon. At the close of the games little Miss Imogene Willis, in the role of messenger, presented dainty white tulle tied boxes of gifts to the honoree.

The high score favors at both games were bud vases, and were won by Mrs. Frank Caudle and Mrs. J. A. Staley. Low score favors were pretty incense burners and went to Mrs. Fay Hardeman and Mrs. Claude Gilchrist. The honoree was presented with a handsome madeira lunch cloth. Miss Staley was very attractive in a lace trimmed grey organdie, with hand-made sweet peas.

A two-course luncheon of creamed chicken on toast, olives, pickles, fruit salad, brick cream, angel food cake, almonds and mints, was served to the following: Miss Staley and Mrs. J. A. Staley, Mesdames Victor Smith, Faye Hardeman, T. R. Palmer of Dallas, Claud Gilchrist, R. E. Shepherd, Guy Rogers, R. H. Hollinger, J. I. Staley, W. L. Hawkins, M. Mitcham, Jack Oltorf, V. P. ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE AND "42" ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. H. V. Shepherd was hostess to about seventy guests at her home Friday afternoon when bridge and "42" furnished the principal diversion.

The house was lovely with spring flowers in baskets, yellow wild flowers and green fern providing a color motif very suggestive of crisp, cool springtime. The yellow and green color scheme was carried throughout the entire entertainment and was very prettily remembered in the cooling mints passed during the games.

The first score prizes were handsome polychrome powder boxes and were won at bridge by Mrs. Golding of Kemp Kort and at "42" by Mrs Hughes of Quanah. The consolations were art candlesticks and were presented to Mesdames Luther Hoffman and Charles Fogenpohl. The cut prizes at each table were pale yellow and green linen handkerchiefs, hand drawn and made.

A very delicate refreshment course of apricot ice and angel food iced in pale green was served the following guests: Mesdames Bert Bean, Bennie Donald, H. O. Cravens, Hughes of Quanah, John Gould, Leslie Humphrey, W. B. Hamilton, Eugene Sherrod, R. O. Harvey, Luther Hoffman, John Paskins, Hampshire, M. Staniforth, Van Wormer, H. F. Welden, C. C. McDonald, Abe Marcus, R. E. Huff, William Huff, Beppy Gardner, C. W. Stevenson, Tom Nolan, W. P. Bolding, Bruce Larkin, R. H. Collier, Kleuden, W. E. Maxson, A. H. Britain, Stanley Field, Clarence Moore, W. H. Priddy, Leonard French, Fred C. Barron, C. W. Smith, Mack Thomas, Hall of Kentucky, T. P. Adams, W. J. Grisham, W. J. McAllister, P. P. Langford, T. B. Noble, H. B. Patterson, Clint Wood, C. B. Felder, Lucile Brooks Huff, Pogenpohl, W. H. Street, Charles Hartsook, Oral Jones, J. D. Parnell and E. B. Gorham; Misses Flora Lee McCullough of Waco, Annabelle Farquar, Flossie Farquahar, Grace D. Shamberger, Ethel Owen, Frazier, Mary Owen, Seuda Willis, Hallie Adams, Mary Naff and Felder.

DEAN OF WOMEN, HOWARD U. MOVING TO WICHITA FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Thompson, business manager and Dean of Women of Howard university, in Birmingham, Alabama, are moving to Wichita Falls and are expected by local friends to be in about June 1st.

Mrs. Thompson is said to be the only woman in America who holds a Doctor's degree from a seminary. She has been for some years connected with educational institutions in Alabama and South Carolina, including Howard university, and is spoken of as a woman with an unusually attractive personality.

Mr. Thompson was business manager of the university, and is a graduate of Texas Christian University and Southwestern Baptist seminary.

They are expected to be at home at the William-Mays temporarily.

C. I. A. GRADUATES HONOR M. ELEANOR BRECKENRIDGE IN COLLEGE "DAEDALIAN"

Miss M. Eleanor Breckenridge, of San Antonio, well known and much loved benefactor of education in the state of Texas, woman of much patriotic, and member since its inception of the board of regents of the State College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Texas, is honored by the 1921 graduates of that institution on the dedication page of the college annual, the "Daedalian" this year.

The "Daedalian" for 1921 is one of the handsomest college year books ever seen by a member of the Times editorial force. The special decorative designs are exceedingly well conceived, and are artistic and dignified to a most attractive degree. The art lettering is beautiful, as is the photographic reproduction work. One photo specially reproduced and immediately following the dedication page is that of Miss S. Justina Smith, director of the department of training of the college, who was a guest during Christmas week of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hoffman of this city.

Local Girl Graduates

Miss Emma Carter and Miss Frances Cook are two Wichita Falls girls whose photos, in cap and gown, are among those of the 1921 graduates. Both are completing four courses and receiving Bachelor of Science degrees in the Household Arts department. Miss Carter enjoyed the distinction this year, added to many others in honors conferred by her class and the whole student body, of being president of the Students association, the junior guard of the C. I. A. Miss Cook has also been several times honored by her class and club associates, and was a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet this year, the students' Y. W. numbering seven or eight members.

Local interest in the College of Industrial Arts, which is the third largest woman's college in America, is heightened by the fact that its president, considered one of the foremost executives among college educators in the south, is a brother of W. O. Bradley of this city, and the honor of a regency in the institution was recently conferred upon J. A. Kemp, of Wichita Falls, by Governor Neff. A number of Wichita Falls girls are undergraduates at C. I. A.

BRIDE-ELECT INSPIRATION FOR ATTRACTIVE AFFAIRS DURING WHOLE PAST WEEK

Miss Leila Beall Anderson whose marriage to L H Cullum was solemnized Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian church was the inspiration for several very lovely hospitalities given by her friends during the past week

Mr Cullum also shared the happy thought of his friends in the entertainments for the wedding party and would have been the single guest of honor at Friday night's after-rehearsal affair at the Wichita club if the young ladies of the wedding party had not been of a different mind from the chief conspirators

Mrs Haynes' Luncheon.

Mrs Harold Haynes was hostess Thursday afternoon for Miss Anderson entertaining a group of the latter's friends with a luncheon at the home of her mother, Mrs T B Noble

The house was very prettily decorated with spring flowers the dining room and table being especially attractive Mrs Haynes had planned an informal series of toasts which she opened very happily with a compliment to the bride elect The luncheon was served in five attractive courses to the following guests Mesdames W P Jewin, James Barnard Leslie Stringer Wayne Hammond and Charles Francis Misses Louise Montgomery of Austin Onah Astin of Bryan, Madeline Mackechnie Marian Maer and Pauline Richolt

Thursday Evening.

Thursday evening the wedding party members and out-of town guests were guests of Mr and Mrs Leslie Stringer at dinner at the Golf club The dinner was beautifully planned with a color scheme of pink and white for the table hand-made pink and white roses, elfish little-faced brides for place markers and a thread of pink and white in the menu

After dinner the guests enjoyed various entertainment afforded at the club including a midnight swim to close the party

Luncheon at Wichita Club.

Miss Louise Montgomery of Austin maid of honor in the wedding party entertained the other members of the party and a few additional guests Saturday afternoon with a luncheon at the Wichita club The luncheon was the crowning hospitality of the week and one of the loveliest small affairs ever given at the club A color scheme of pink and white which characterized all of the entertainments honoring Miss Anderson since the announcement of her engagement, was beautifully suggested in the sweet-pea and rose centerpiece and in the little pink blindfolded Cupids circled with wedding rings which served as place markers

The favors were clever and pretty—miniature wedding-party mannikins, each attired in imitation of the wedding costume of some member of the party The honoree's favor was a very dainty little bride with veil and orange blossoms

Luncheon was served in four courses to Mesdames Harold Haynes Leslie Stringer, O E Maer Charles Francis G D Anderson E V Lemen and E H Astin of Bryan Misses Leila Beall Anderson Onah Astin, Paulin Richolt Marion Maer and Montgomery

Miss Anderson took advantage of the occasion to present her maids and matrons and organist with pretty gold thimbles During the week she presented Master Walter Horne Priddy the train bearer with a tiny gold pencil

After-Rehearsal Party.

Saturday evening the wedding party was entertained after a rehearsal at the Wichita club, where luncheon was served and dancing enjoyed later in the evening Mr Cullum presented the men of his wedding party with gold pocket knives as remembrances An incident of the evening which the groom-elect lived down by a small margin and which was staged with such seriousness as to threaten for a time to break up the luncheon, was the arrest of Mr Cullum by Officer Hopkins of the city force on the charge of 'mooching' a water-bottle from a local purifying company Through the assistance of Jouette Bonner, for whom a telephone hurry call was sent, a compromise was effected For the remainder of the meal, however, by the terms of the compromise, Mr Cullum was seated next to the police officer instead of his fiancee at the table

Those at the club included Mr and Mrs Leslie Stringer, Misses Anderson Montgomery, Astin Pauline Richolt and Marian Maer, and Messrs. Jack Duke of Breckenridge, Frank Cullum, Dillard Anderson, Jouette Bonner, William Robertson and Charles Nolen

SWIM AND BREAKFAST FOR MISS BULLOCK ON FRIDAY

A swim and breakfast party the first at the new Haven park pool and the latter at the home of Mrs R H Hollinger on Baylor street, was the compliment tendered Miss Bonnie Bullock, June bride-elect, by Mrs Hollinger and Miss Theresa Yates Friday morning

The early morning swim was very much enjoyed, and immediately following it the party went in cars to Mrs Hollinger's home The dining table was lovely with baskets of golden daisies and fern tied with yellow tulle and a four course menu comprising a most delectable breakfast was served to the hungry swimmers

Those who were present included Mesdames Goeffrey Shaw J E Bond, W J Bullock of Bentonville Ark, sister of the bride elect J T Yates I D Davenport Roy Daughaday I I Staley T R Palmer of Dallas, W L Hawkins Jack Ottorf R N Sansbury, Millil Allen and McCumber and Misses Polly and Berenice Taylor Josepheine Bullock of Bentonville Mary Naff Estelle Keevil Fleet Staley and Seuda White and the honoree Miss Bonnie Bullock and hostesses

NOT COMING, BUT GOING GENERATION NEEDS TO BE WATCHED, SAYS WRIGHT

By PAUL MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK May 28—It's not the coming generation but the going generation that needs watching according to H H Wright director of organization in New York high schools Wright was asked by the United Press today for his views concerning the menace of short skirts and rouge for students

"Short skirts and rouge?" he echoed "Why that's old stuff! New York school girls aren't doing it any more

"Girls here aren't tucking up their dresses, rouging their cheeks, reddening their lips and touching up their eyebrows It's only the old woman trying to fool Father Time, who are still doing that

"If the reformers want to start lengthening women's skirts they can begin with the old women because the real girls just don't have to do it"

"Baby Pride" of Ozarks Free of Murder Charge

FARMINGTON MO May 28—Letta Parsons the 11 year-old Ozarks bride accused of killing her six-year-old step-daughter was free today under the care and protection of the state

The maximum punishment in juvenile court is a sentence to the reformatory until 21 age In order to procure a sentence in juvenile court the prisoner must be proven incorrigible or irresponsible

A jury returned a verdict in Letta's case finding that she was neither incorrigible nor irresponsible This verdict therefore freed her from a sentence to the reformatory Judge Peter Hack before whom the case was tried, took into consideration the fact that an alienist had testified Letta had the mind of an eight-year-old child and using his prerogative placed her in the custody of the probation officer for an indefinite time

Letta therefore is entirely free of the charge of murder She will however not be permitted to return to her home at Iron Mountain nor to her woodchopper husband

LATEST STYLE
By LENORE

Like a garden in June are the gay little frocks for wee ladies For when one is all of six ones clothes, to be chic must be colorful and bright So while the frocks shown in the shops are as varied in styles as the types of small girls, there is but one thing to say about the color—the rainbow is the limit'

Charmingly unusual frocks in dotted swiss and organdie were featured this week in violet, canary yellow, cornflower blue, candy pink, and shades of red, with smocking, tucks, piping frills, ruffles, and yarn embroidery as the chief points of interest in the matter of trimming

Many of the designs used skirts of three tiers of ruffles, pointed or scalloped, with picot edges, but the simpler patterns were cut on waistless lines like the little model in the sketch, which in color suggests a handfull of violets fresh from the moist soil It is made of dotted swiss with frills of narrow Valenciennes lace, capped by a tiny cluster of pink rosebuds at each section These may be easily removed before tubbing

PATTERN NO 173

A pattern for the above model (No 173) can be obtained in ages 4 6, 8 10 or 12, by sending to Lenore, 8 West 40th Street, New York City, your name and address, number of this pattern and age required, and 15 cents in postage stamps Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks—The Editor

ELEVEN REVOLUTIONS THE PRESENT RECORD OF DR. SUN-YAT-SEN

COMPARATIVELY YOUNG AND HAS PLENTY TIME TO ADD TO LIST

HE KNOWS HOW BITTER THE BREAD OF EXILE

For Years His Exclusive Business Has Been to Plot Against Chinese Monarchy.

By CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL
Special Correspondent of the Wichita Daily Times
(Copyrt. 1921, by Wichita Daily Times)

CANTON May 2—Eleven revolutions is, up to date the record of Dr Sun Yat-sen but as he is still comparatively young he has plenty of time for more if things do not go to suit him He is the Mazzini of China he knows how bitter is the bread of exile having eaten none other for much of his life For years his exclusive business was to plot against the monarchy nimbly slipping from port to port just ahead of detectives and assassins as he strove to accomplish its ruin

He was born in Honolulu educated chiefly in Hong Kong has traveled widely knows men and measures and speaks many tongues including an excellent strain of American In two minutes talk any one can see why he has been so great a power among his countrymen First it is his tremendous faith in his convictions and second his usual gift of magnetism He is as magnetic as Lenine a hundred times better looking and about a thousand time more logical It is just as easy to see why in spite of his sincerity and great gifts men say that China begins a little to tire of him All reformers end by wearying the people they try to emancipate

This is an inevitable part of the reforming game though Sun Yat sen so far refuses to see it

Some persons greatly admire him some loathe the mention of his name, which is again the common lot of reformers But whether they like him or dislike all have to admit the peculiar excellences and almost marvelous achievements of the government he and General Ming have set up and managed in Kwang tung

For instance they found not only a ruined and empty treasury but apparently no way to fill it The satrap that preceded them had thoughtfully collected the taxes for three years in advance before he fled and the new government got nothing but receipts thrust into its face

They found also a region overrun with bandits rivers infested with pirates robbery the commonest and most lucrative trade life and possession everywhere unsafe They have straightened out all this now so that Kwang-tung is the most orderly province in China Without extortion or febrile finance the government has put money into its empty treasury built roads abolished most of the brigandage eliminated most of the graft safeguarding transit and thanks to General Ming the military power has been subordinated to the civil These are the undeniable results and fair-minded men will agree that they dispose of the foreign exploiters favorite theory that the Chinese are incapable of efficient government and the direction of their own affairs

I met Dr Sun Yat sen in the provincial government offices which are at the back of Canton and reached by some of those amazing avenues and boulevards that the new Canton is driving so relentlessly through the heart of the old He is to begin with a wholesome and good figure to look at framed like an athlete about 5 feet 7 inches in height well proportioned with a good head good brown eyes (dreamers) excellent voice excellent bearing He wears a kind of undress unadorned khaki uniform like that of Kerensky whom by the way he somewhat resembles

We talked about democracy in China and he spoke of it with a fervor of faith that might of course have been play acting but if it was so certainly defied detection I asked him what popular mandate or authority his government could claim He said it was the only government constituted by the only parliament elected by the people of China which was mandate enough I suggested that by this time it was becoming a little mouldy He didn't think so a mandate of some years was better than none at all I asked why his government did not issue a call for a new parliamentary election and get a new mandate He said the northern provinces would pay no attention to such a call I said I knew that but the southern provinces would respond and a new election would immeasurably strengthen the southern position before the democratic world since it would show that the south was really committed to all the requirements of democracy, but he said that the southern position was morally unassailable anyway, and another election would not strengthen it

We talked about Dr Wu's exposition of the issues of the struggle between the North and the South and he said with a sudden access of emphasis

"There is something else you ought to make careful note of We contend for the democratic principle and we contend no less for the sheer existence of China as a nation

It has long been the settled policy and intention of Japan to dismember China and to absorb it piece by piece In 1915, when the rest of the world was distracted by the Great War Japan thought that the great opportunity had come to push the dismantling process and therefore it presented the famous or infamous Twenty-one Demands

Now it is true that these Twenty-one Demands were not in themselves of Japanese origin They were designed by Yuan Shih-kai when he was trying to make himself the absolute ruler of China and by him suggested to the Japanese government that he might get Japanese support for his own imperial project He not only suggested them but he asked the Japanese to present them in such a way that China would seem to have no recourse except to yield I have no doubt the Japanese government was only too glad to comply for these demands fitted exactly into their purpose

Next there were two features about these demands that you should note and remember with equal care First they were of such a nature that they amounted to the surrender of China's existence as an independent and sovereign nation and reduced it practically to the level of a Japanese dependency Second they opened the door wide for Japan's aggression which meant that unless check Japan would have full chance to carry out her plan of absorption and have all Northern China would be added to the Japanese Empire as fast as the people in each province or region could be brought under subjection as the Koreans have been

Yuan Shih Kai fell but the government that succeeded him being still Japanese influenced continued to carry out the demands to which he had apparently yielded under pressure although they were of his own suggestion That is the second great point in what we must insist If there is any China the Twenty-one Demands must be repudiated and the government closed definitely to Japanese control

Then there were other demands such which came to offer an opportunity to the government at Peking which would have a democratic government it has a democratic warrant certain foreign influences have not spoken about it democratic [illegible] Let me say that this can be undone in short order if the Twenty-one Demands are repudiated and the control resisted it means a mortal injury to Japan

I said I thought most observers of eastern affairs no matter how they might feel that Japan would win in the end but that the Japanese were doing it at a great cost [illegible] Western [illegible] Japan [illegible] the Western [illegible] Japan [illegible] the Western [illegible] Japan [illegible] the

AMUSEMENT CALENDAR FOR COMING WEEK

Motion Pictures

"TWO WEEKS WITH PAY" TO BE WEEK'S OPENER ON OLYMPIC PROGRAM

You see her see herself on the screen

Such is the unusual situation which will occur to playgoers when they visit 'Two Weeks With Pay' the Bebe Daniels Realart comedy-drama which will open at the Olympic theatre for three days beginning Monday

For in the play Miss Daniels plays a dual role depicting in one character Patsy O'Donnell a pretty salesgirl and in the other Marie La Tour famous screen star and divine beauty When Patsy goes to the fashionable Fairview hotel to spend her vacation two weeks with pay she is mistaken for Miss La Tour and circumstances force her to assume the character

To study the screen star she goes to the nearest picture show—and there you see Bebe Daniels as Patsy O'Donnell watching Bebe Daniels as Marie La Tour acting on the screen within a screen' It is declared one of the most novel photographic effects ever conceived and is sure to be a much-talked of feature of this brisk comedy of mistaken identity

Sir James' Barrie's Sentimental Tommy' has been produced by John S Robertson for Paramount with a cast that embraces several of the best players of the stage and screen This picture which is said to possess much heart interest and Barrie charm will be the bill at the Olympic Theatre for three days starting Thursday next

Gareth Hughes who is seen in the title role is a young Welshman who came to America in 1914 with an English company and has since displayed such marked talent that he is recognized as a leading juvenile of the country He was chosen out of hundreds of possibilities for an exacting role in Cadman which was given at the City College stadium New York for the Shakespeare Tercentenary celebration He is now a Metro star and was loaned to Paramount

May McAvoy who plays Grizel is a leading youngster of the screen having scored in The Devil's Garden and The Truth About Husbands Mabel Taliaferro as The Painted Lady is a stage and screen star of wide repute Then there is George Fawcett as Dr McQueen Kate Davenport who is a near relative of the Drew ties and Drew Malcolm Bradley for fourteen years with E H Sothern and Alfred Kappeller one of the sterling lights of the stage

"IT'S A GREAT LIFE" WILL BE AMONG ATTRACTIONS AT GEM DURING WEEK

Mary Roberts Rinehart's great story 'It's A Great Life' comes to the Gem theatre on Monday of this week as the lead off attraction of a strong movie bill The picture is of the breezy carefree type which is easily adapted to the screen and its interpretation as given by a strong cast makes it one of the most enjoyable productions of the year

Tuesday brings Viola Dana in 'Puppets of Fate' a story which gives the tiny Metro star ample opportunity to display her talents in compelling fashion The theme centers around the life of a small Italian girl whose husband left her and came to America to make a fortune with a Marionette show Instead he became rich by gambling and was forced to marry a chorus girl How his first wife follows him grows rich herself and finally meets him in a divorce court provides an absorbing picture

The Dark Mirror a Dorothy Dalton production comes Wednesday and the day following Harold Goodwin in Oliver Twist Junior has the center of the stage Miss Dalton's production is a story of two worlds the high society of New York and the Chinese slums of San Francisco while the Goodwin picture is a lively comedy drama in which a new star is introduced the movie gallery

Wallace Reid and Bebe Daniels two of the most popular players before the camera today are co-starred in The Dancin Fool which comes on Friday for one day only In this production Reid is shown as a country rube who goes to the city to sell jugs for an uncle but who suddenly finds out that he can dance and then starts exhibitions in a cabaret with a street singer as a partner Of course they rise to the heights of fame and the picture ends up as per usual

The usual comedies and westerns close the bill Saturday

Wichita Falls women find in the City National Bank of Commerce that courteous attention which combined with complete facilities and every convenience makes their banking transactions pleasant as well as profitable 18 lte

OLYMPIC THEATRE FEATURE THIS WEEK

"HER LORD AND MASTER" "AND BLACK ROSES" AMONG EMPRESS FILMS THIS WEEK

A new Roberts Cole special production 'Black Roses' starring the inimitable dramatic screen artist Sessue Hayakawa comes to the Empress Monday and Tuesday of this week This is undoubtedly the best picture that Hayakawa has made and adds to his laurels as a versatile artist In the cast with Hayakawa is Tsuru Aoki his petite and pretty wife who gives a performance quite as wonderful as that of her husband

Black Roses was written and scenarized by R Richard Schayer and directed by Colin Campbell The scenes of the drama cover all parts of America with some of the dramatic moments pictured with the gorgeous lights of New York's great white way The perfection of settings both interior and exterior adds materially to the value of the story

As a stage play Her Lord and Master made a big hit on Broadway As a picture it will make a greater hit throughout the entire country It is one of those plays that lends itself well to the silent drama Every scene is picturesque and filled with human interest The love element predominates and is the type of clean wholesome love story that everyone enjoys There is no offensive villain no melodramatic thrills or sensational scenes that shock the senses Her Lord and Master is the type of film the public has been demanding and proves that a clean wholesome picture is far more entertaining interesting and realistic than the vast unnatural productions that have flooded the world All the leading roles are filled with high class talent supporting skillful acting and which make the woman always the lady In Her Lord and Master she presents all the charm and lovable personality of a real American girl who has been pampered and spoiled How he matures into a model wife under the guidance of a loving but not indulgent husband makes a pleasing photoplay

The production appears Thursday and Friday

On Wednesday only a Paramount special starring a number of the screens best known luminaries entitled The Rail makes its appearance while on Saturday Justine Johnston in Sheltered Daughters comes to close the week

A strong supporting bill of comedies news reels and topics of the day films will be shown at all performances during the week

"SUDDEN JIM" TO APPEAR ON MONDAY AT MAJESTIC; OTHER GOOD OFFERINGS

Charles Ray in Sudden Jim a Paramount production showing some more funny sides of rural life comes to the Majestic as lead off picture in this week's line up appearing on Monday Ray's fans need no explanation as he long ago demonstrated that his work was of a type which pleased every one and which never failed to draw capacity crowds Sudden Jim is no exception to this rule

On Tuesday Marion Davies in an entirely different type of picture The Restless Sex comes for a one day stay and on the following two days Oliver Curwood's story of dog life Isobel will furnish thrill attractions The Restless Sex is a drama of high society life in Washington and shows some of the doings of those supposed to be the cream of the country Miss Davies handles her part in an exceptionally capable manner and is supported by a strong cast

Isobel has its settings in the frozen north and combines all the thrills and melodrama which the preceding film doesn't have Both productions have exhibited here before and are well worth seeing

William Russell and Edith Johnson in Fighting Fate make their regular weekly appearance on Wednesday and Thursday

"A THOUSAND TO ONE" IS HEADLINER FOR WEEK ON STRAND THEATER PROGRAM

A photoplay of contrasts is Hobart Bosworth's latest J Parker Read Jr starring vehicle 'A Thousand to One,' which comes to the Strand theater Thursday night under the auspices of the Associated Producers Inc

The atmospheric detail—the story's characterization and the tone of the story are a series of contrasts

Bosworth is first the dilettante and master spending his nights in the haunts of San Francisco's Chinatown Then he is the outcast—the wanderer in the mining camps and finally the man regenerated—brought back into his own by the one chance in a thousand

Heretofore Hobart Bosworth has been happily identified with sea stories and it is a bit unusual to find him in evening clothes—but variety is the spice of amusement and this favorite of stage and screen offers a brilliant example of his versatile talent in his new vehicle Ethel Grey Terry the popular English actress who in an amazingly short time has won her way into the hearts of American theater goers plays opposite the star Rowland V Lee has covered himself with glory as the director of this Bosworth screen play

The first half of the week brings Norma Talmadge in A Probation Wife which is said to be one of the best productions the popular star has ever turned out A strong supporting bill of comedies and news reels appear on both ends of the week

A Day With Jack Dempsey, showing the heavyweight champ in training for his bout with Carpentier, will be offered as the main extra the last half of the week

MANY CIVIC AND BUSINESS PROBLEMS CONSIDERED AT TABLES AROUND WHICH LUNCHEON CLUBS MEET

The rule of "let's sat and talk it over' is coming to be applied to the business and civic problems of many groups of men in Wichita Falls. With six luncheon clubs of general membership, there are in addition a number of smaller organizations each confined to one line of activity, the members of which get together weekly or bi-weekly to discuss problems of mutual interest.

The luncheon club idea is a modern idea. It may be said to have originated with the Rotary club, which is even now less than 20 years old. The same general idea has been followed by other international organizations such as the Kiwanis, Lions, Civitas and Canopus clubs. The principles and purposes of these organizations vary somewhat, but are along the same broad and general lines of community up-building by getting men of diverse callings together.

The Rotary Club was the first to be formed in Wichita Falls, it being now in its seventh year. For some time it was Wichita Falls' only luncheon club. Several years ago a Lions Club was formed here later to change its identity to the Wichita Club. The past two years have seen the University Club, the Ad Club, the business council of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis clubs come along into being. Both individually and collectively these organizations are civic forces that mean much to this city.

In addition to these organizations there are a number of smaller ones. There is the Utility Club headed by A. E. Kelly, assistant manager of the Wichita Falls Electric company. It includes telegraph, telephone, water, electric, traction and gas company officials and its discussions deal with the varied problems that such undertakings bring about. One can imagine that its sessions would be interesting for an outsider to attend, imagine for instance hearing P. A. Rogers telling the others how he took a brand new city park away from the city because he needed a place to store his oil.

Also of considerable interest to the average man would be a session of the Credit Men's Club. That is something of a misnomer, for some local credit managers are women. At their sessions the failure of John Doe to settle with sufficient promptness is communicated to those he owes to those whom he might desire to owe. If your names is never discussed at their sessions you may feel glad. W. P. Killings worth is president of the organization.

Drug store proprietors have their own peculiar problems. A while back it was whether to sell whiskey on prescription, later it was whether to close upon Sunday. D. L. Tipton is head of their organization which includes about a dozen members.

The lumber dealers have an organization headed by J. G. Galbraith and they tackle various problems vital to that business. Recently this organization has been using some advertising space on the subject of building now while costs are low.

The work of the Automotive Dealers association, which meets every other Friday night is too well known to require discussion here. It is one of the best organized and most efficiently conducted organizations in the city. A. B. Booth is its president.

Local employing printers have their organization which holds to chron meetings twice a month. They have had plenty to talk about lately.

Traffic managers have an organization energetic organization which lays together luncheons at a monthly. A. A. Spencer is the president.

The last business men's luncheon of many was spent in a fair in the interest of the Red Cross. It was better acquainted, it was a little fellowship and the spirit of extended hand to equal to any was naturally out of such a gathering.

The weekly luncheon of the Wichita Falls business men has developed and are doing much for the community as a whole and the importance of such will increase as the community grows and there are more and more problems for the leaders.

BOOMING DOWN THE CANYON

The American Forestry Association has given the United Press for Forest Protection Week use in the schools the following from poem by Remington Ellis.

The ranger sat in his cabin door
With eyes that were swollen and lungs that were sore
While under his breath he bitterly swore
For—she was booming down the canyon

The tourists who left two days before
Will never visit their camp site more
Nor gaze on the scenes they used to adore
For—she's booming down the canyon

A few little sparks by a tree quite dead
Just a few live coals that were out they said
Now look at her going roaring and red
A-booming down the canyon

Forty good men husky and strong
Worked like demons all the day long
But she crowned and went over—again she made game
A booming down the canyon

How long it may burn or where it may go
Are a couple of things that no one can know
But it won't be all out till we get lots of snow
For—she's booming down the canyon

Hundreds of years to grow those trees
These same live coals and—a little breeze
Then waste and desolation are all one sees
As she goes booming down the canyon

The ranger sat in his cabin door
With eyes that were bloodshot and lungs that were sore
And at someone's gross carelessness bitterly swore
For—she was booming down the canyon

The Association urges that the verses be read in every school in connection with Forest Protection Week programs and that every school using the poem write the association at Washington and tell of the school programs and the pupils who had part in them.

NEW RECORD IN TAX COLLECTIONS ON 1920 COUNTY VALUATIONS

NEARLY MILLION AND QUARTER GARNERED FOR BOTH STATE AND COUNTY PURPOSES.

LARGE AMOUNT PLACED UPON DELINQUENT ROLLS

Nearly 25 Per Cent of Total Becomes Past Due—Large Amount to State.

Wichita county made a record for tax collections for 1920 assessments. It made a double record in that it collected more money than was ever before collected for one year and also in the amount that was forced to be placed on the delinquent rolls.

Collections for state and county taxes amounted to $1,2[illegible],214.4[illegible] according to the annual report and statement made by Tax Collector M. J. Tittle.

The total roll was $1,[illegible],81[illegible] which left a total of $[illegible] to be placed on the delinquent roll. The small percentage of .[illegible] per cent of the total tax roll become delinquent and was forced to be placed on the roll.

For the year 1919 a total of $[illegible] was placed on the delinquent list of which a great portion was also collected this year. The delinquent taxes for the year 1919 paid to the state alone amounted to $3[illegible] while the county was benefitted by an amount totalling $[illegible] which made a total of $1[illegible].21.

The total amount of delinquent taxes collected from the rolls amounted to $[illegible] for 1920.

From the supplemental rolls known to the tax assessor as unrendered rolls the tax collector this year collected a total of $[illegible].

The interest which the county received from the money collected for 1920 from the county depository amounted to $[illegible].

Penalties which tax payers were forced to pay on account of not paying taxes on time amounted to $[illegible].

The county tax collector's report for the year with the delinquent roll and a check for the money collected will be forwarded to the state department during the coming week.

Payment of over a half million dollars to the state for taxes from this county is believed by many here to be a record that will be hard to beat by any other county in the state.

A county official stated that the great amount of money that was being paid to the state was due to the high assessments taken last year when the rolls amounted to nearly $100,000,000. The assessments this year were taken on a lower basis in view of raising the county tax rate.

First Baptist Church Sunday School.

11:00 a. m. All departments assembly rooms are prepared for the respective departments to have opening exercises, if they so desire. The subject for study in the Sunday school is great. It is that of "Making the Neighborhood Christian." Golden Text: "Love worketh no ill to his neighbors: love therefore is the fulfillment of the law." The heart of the lesson is found in the following paragraphs: 1—Plan community effort. There is something to be done. Good works do not save, but the saved ought to do good. 2—Spread community enlightment. Education, when of the right sort is a good thing. No knowledge is so cultural as that of the Word of God. 3—Inspire community motive Love your neighbor. Love your neighborhood. Love God above all. 4.—Discover community need. The robbed and wounded traveler still lies in helpless suffering by the roadside of life. Who is ready to rescue? 5.—Prevent community negligence. The two men who of all men should have helped the unfortunate man passed on by without so much as lifting a little finger. 6—Provide community relief. Extend the help that helps. See what the Samaritan did—everything possible without a moment's hesitation. 7—Promote community betterment. The priest and the Levite despised the Samaritan. But what did the wounded and penniless man think of him? And what did Jesus think of him? "Go thou and do likewise." 8—Enlist community workers. Count on christians almost entirely to do the world's uplift work 9—Lead community worship. No neighborhood can be permanently built up without the house of God. Worship promotes welfare. 10.—Expect community progress When the cause of Christ prospers there is prosperity in all other respects. Next Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, all the teachers and officers of the Sunday school will meet in the basement auditorium for a general departmental conference. The program will be as follows: At 6 30 a light lunch will be served. Then there will be a round-table discussion on the work our school needs to do, and how best to do it. Then the officers and teachers of the respective departments will meet in their departments for thirty minutes departmental conference. Following this meeting will be the prayer service of the church.—W. G. ASHFORD, General Supt.

Doctor Smith the Great Eye Specialist Warns the Public To Care for Their Eyes

Says Eyesight May Be Strengthened Through the Law of Osmosis 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances.

New York—Doctor Smith says, "Most people's eyes go back on them between forty and fifty years of age unless they strengthen them while young." He further says, "Everyone young and old should know how to care for their eyes in order to prevent the wearing of glasses by strengthening the eye muscles through the law of Osmosis." Again he states, "The eyesight even in old folks eyes can positively be strengthened to a surprising degree by properly treating the eyes so as to build up the eye muscles and wash away the mist and haze in front of the eye lenses. Before a photographer can take a good picture the lens of the camera must be clean, so it is with the eyes. The eyes get misty and dirty and must be cleaned in order to see well." Very few farmers require distance glasses because most of the time they have an unobstructed view and use their eye muscles for distant vision; this keeps their eye muscles strong and well developed while the city man is restricted in his range of vision, and therefore does not properly exercise his eye muscles, thus they become weak and susceptible to eye strain. Doctor Bickston, who is heartily in accord with the views of Dr. Smith, says there is no better method of preserving and developing the eyesight than the Bon-Opto method and he advises everyone of any age to use Bon-Opto to relieve such troubles as inflamed eyes or lids; weak or watery eyes; aching, burning eyes Cold winds, glaring sun and snow cause a profuse watering and weakening of the eye muscles and a misty eye lens. These troubles may be quickly overcome through the daily use of Bon-Opto. A single trial will convince you that it has a soothing, healing, cooling effect upon the eyes. Doctor Lewis, another physicians of many years practice, says: "It is a strange thing to me why so many people hesitate to put anything into the eyes as it is just as safe to wash the eyes with Bon-Opto as it is to take a drink of good, pure water The eye is not the delicate organ many suppose. Look how we abuse them and yet they continue to serve us well." Doctor Conner says: "Misfit glasses have injured and weakened more eyes than any other one thing, and I advise everyone young and old to use a method of treatment like Bon-Opto before resorting to glasses and even if one wears glasses they will find great relief and clearer vision by following the Bon-Opto method." One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind, could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would plain dreadfully, now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this method for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read the fine print without glasses."

NOTE—A city physicians to whom the above article was submitted said, "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable, harmless remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time or refund the money. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold under a money back guarantee in this city by all leading druggists including the Palace Drug company. (adv.)

SAYS TRUCK BILL PUTS BURDEN UPON SMALL COMMUNITY

J. G. CULBERTSON DISCUSSES MEASURE OF WHICH REPEAL IS NOW SOUGHT.

POINTS TO DISCRIMINATION IN SEVERAL PROVISIONS

No Opposition Among Truck Owners, He Says, to Paying Fair Share of Road Upkeep.

"The so-called truck bill recently enacted by the Texas legislature, if not amended or repealed at the coming session of the legislature will shift an unfair burden and an unreasonable expense on the inland towns and rural communities of our state" says J. G. Culbertson, president of the Texas Employers' association and vice-president of the Texas chamber of commerce. Mr Culbertson further states

"Hundreds of inland towns and a vastly greater number of rural communities in Texas are dependent upon motor trucks to move their products, livestock and perishable goods to the market and for carrying to them the countless tons of merchandise consumed annually. Motor trucks are to them what the railroads are to the larger cities—their only adequate means of transportation

"This law, as enacted imposes an annual license fee of $60 to $120 on motor trucks ranging in capacity from 2 001 to 10 000 pounds In addition it imposes a mileage license fee of 1 to 8 cents per mile traveled the rate depending upon the carrying capacity of the truck

"This law further provides that each motor truck must be equipped with a mechanical speed governor to prevent it from being operated in excess of the very slow speeds prescribed Furthermore, that each motor truck owner must keep a separate book or set of books and an accurate account therein of the number of miles traveled in each county in which his truck is operated

"A $200 fine or 30 days' imprisonment is the maximum penalty provided for failure to comply with this law

"As one instance of injustice imposed by this new law the motor truck owner is compelled to pay the same mileage license fee whether his truck is loaded or unloaded or whether traveling on a concrete highway an unimproved highway, private road or across the pastures and fields of his own estate

"Certain interests, in their desperate attempt to eliminate motor trucks from a few highways paralleling certain railroad and interurban lines in this state, are responsible for this new law. To accomplish their purpose on these few highways they would, apparently, strangle motor truck transportation throughout the state

"The advocates of this law claim that motor trucks damage our highways. This is true to a certain extent It is also true that heavy steel-tired wagons drawn by mules and horses are infinitely more damaging to the road surfaces, yet such conveyances are exempt from all license fees Is it not rank discrimination to tax one and let the other go"

"Is there anything just and reasonable about taxing an empty truck as heavily as a fully loaded truck even granting that the mileage tax is the proper method of taxation"

"Where is the justice in compelling payment of the mileage fee when trucks are not operated on public highways but across fields and pastures, or unimproved country roads"

Where is the logic and common sense of restricting the light one and one-half ton truck to the same rate of speed as the heavier five-ton truck"

"I am heartily in favor of motor trucks being taxed along with other vehicles using our public highways, but the tax should be reasonable and applied with common sense and without discrimination

"The excessive fee provided for in this new law, if it should not result in the restricted use of motor trucks throughout our state, will result in higher living costs generally. If it does restrict the use of motor trucks, as it is sure to do still higher living costs will be the result

"This new law, if not amended or repealed will work a hardship on the development of our rural communities, upon which we are dependent for the development and progress of our state

"After all, are we paying taxes for the purpose of building highways fit only for very light traffic and joyriding, or will we build highways over which rubber-tired motor vehicles of reasonable capacity may be operated to carry forward our commerce and the development of our resources"

"Motor truck owners, as a general rule, are appreciative of good roads They are willing to pay their share of the cost and expense, proportionate to the benefits derived, but they have just cause to protest against the overburden and discrimination manifest in the new truck bill"

IN OUR TOWN

By HUBERT M. HARRISON

(Copyright, 1921, Hubert M. Harrison, Wichita Falls, Texas)

What Is A Boy Worth?

Every year at commencement time in the local high schools a number of boys and girls who have been reared in this community and who have enjoyed its privileges make plans to go somewhere else to live

Your community though its chamber of commerce and business leaders, is contantly on the lookout to bring in new industries but at the same time you are allowing the most precious assets the community possesses to slip away from you when your boys and girls decide that some other city would be a better place for them to make a try at fame and fortune It is human nature to think that the grass is greener in the other fellow's pasture We always think we could do better in some other town

It is impossible to estimate what your city may lose in allowing some bright high school boy to leave his home town to give his talents to some other distant city What was the boy George Eastman worth to Rochester" As a bank clerk he dreamed of making a camera small enough to carry easily in one hand and today Rochester suggests "kodak" What would a George Eastman mean to your town"

Suppose we are rearing here a future Edison a Carnegie a Pershing or a president of the United States Time, thought money and heart's blood have been spent upon these boys and girls and just as they are reaching the point when they are worth something to their home town we let them slip away A bright boy may be worth more than a new factory

Your chamber of commerce and business leaders can do much to keep these community assets by taking an interest in the high school activities by helping the boys and girls with their problems by arranging community amusements by calling the older boys and girls groups together for counsel on community matters, by letting them feel that they are stockholders in "Our Town" and when the boys are ready to leave high school, the business man should take a personal interest in them If they want to go to work help them to get work in Our Town so they won't have to leave If they want to go to college try to provide an institution at home or near home If this is impracticable keep in touch with these boys so that they will want to come back and invest their lives in our town

Who can tell what a boy is worth" Who can tell what a loss it may be to Our Town if some bright young lady out of this year's high school graduating class is allowed to go to some distant city where he may in the future startle the world with a new idea.

If you do not believe our high school boys have done this ask about our town make a survey Send questionaires to the members of this year's graduating class Ask them if they intend to live in our town and if they do not intend to why they want to leave Older heads will get a shock that will awaken our town into renewed activity

Work with your chamber of commerce to make your community a better place to live in—a more attractive place to work to play and to worship Hold your boys and girls

Brockton Mass which leads the world in the quantity and quality of the men's shoes it manufactures believes that you may build all the factories you will but you cannot run them without contented men and women to work in them

"The aim of the Brockton chamber of commerce" says its secretary is to make its city an ideal place for wage earners to live a place that they are happy to regard as their permanent home and which they will stick to

The Metuchen N J chamber of commerce has planted a number of trees in Edgar Park as a memorial in honor of the soldiers from that section who lost their lives during the world war

Aren't those the big features of a real vacation? They are typical of the many beautiful and picturesque resorts and towns of the Ozarks, "The Land of a Million Smiles." And yet a vacation in this wonderful region is inexpensive, the most economical as well as the most complete.

The vacationist who "trys" the Ozarks becomes a yearly patron of those lazy green mountains with their cool, tumbling streams that sing a new song of happiness to the tired man or woman. And as a result of the increased number of pleasure-seekers each year, this year finds a bigger and finer region with many new improvements for taking care of guests.

Spend this year in the Ozarks The small expense—just about your usual expense at home—permits a vacation twice as long as the one spent in other vacation lands.

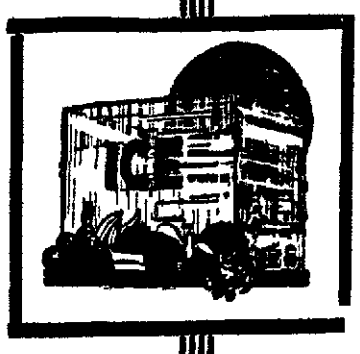
ICE



Three little letters forming the simplest word—but what more could three small letters mean. Health, Comfort, Satisfaction, in fact one's general welfare are all contained in that one simple word.

Put WICHITA BEFORE IT, and its value, if such is possible, immediately doubles. Remember both are excellent, but when put together—WICHITA ICE—what a mighty force pulling for one's Health, Comfort and Satisfaction.

Surely, all should be grateful to him who discovered the process of Ice Making and bestowed its blessings on humanity. WICHITA ICE is the result of all up-to-date and careful methods of making ice.

RATES and CAPITAL

Where does the Wichita Falls Electric Company get the money with which to do business? Here in the United States we expect to get what we pay for, and we expect pay in return for the work we do or the service we render. The Wichita Falls Electric Company, and every other public utility, is entitled to be paid for the service it renders. Its pay is called "rates," and its work is called "service." It, in turn, has to pay the costs of operation and maintenance, and a return to its stockholders for the use of their money that should be sufficiently liberal to attract new capital. All this has to be paid out of the rates it receives for its services. Rates provide the money for running expenses, while capital provides the means for extension and growth.

It is this fresh capital that builds the extensions and improvements Every thrifty man or woman who succeeds in saving something from his or her earnings, wants to invest this money to the best possible advantage. They want to invest it safely and where they may expect a good rate of interest in exchange for the use of it. If they don't get it they won't invest. That is common sense, for no one should be expected to lend his savings for nothing. It is the rates that pay the interest on capital invested in public utilities.

The Wichita Falls Electric Company has to pay as much as any other for the materials it needs to carry on its business—oil, steel, iron, copper, wood and the many other products needed in the production and distribution of electricity. Its employees must be efficient and satisfied, and it must pay them the "market" price in wages, otherwise they will go into other industries. Unlike other businesses, however, the utility company can not fix its own selling prices. It has to pay the "market" price for what it gets, but its own selling prices, or rates, are fixed by some outside authority.

It is from these two sources, Capital and Rates, that the Wichita Falls Electric Company gets the money to carry on its business.

HOW TO FIND OUT IF YOUR MOTOR TRUCK IS READY FOR HOT WEATHER

The sweltering days of summer are with us and service stations will again be filled with heat-afflicted motor trucks Will your truck be in the steaming radiator line Or is it prepared to give uninterrupted service during the summer months?

Overheating and other common hot weather troubles are usually due to lack of forethought and to mistakes that can be easily avoided The main points which require attention are briefly outlined below by A F Masury, chief engineer of the International Motor company, manufacturers of Mack trucks

1—Do you understand the truck's cooling system thoroughly? If not, now is the time to go over it carefully and find out all there is to know about it See that the flow of water is not impeded by any sort of obstruction and that the overflow pipe is not bent below the level of the base of the radiator filler Be sure that the overflow pipe is not clogged or flattened.

2—Is the radiator clean? The front of the radiator should be free from dirt license plates and signs Also the back of the radiator should be unobstructed so that nothing will impede the circulation of the air

3—Are the hose connections water-tight and is the hose in good condition? Be sure that the rubber has not been affected during the winter by an anti-freeze solution Only the best quality rubber hose should be used, as the inside tubing of cheap hose is easily worn away and the rubber particles carried along with the water clog up the radiator

4—Does the fan turn freely and is the belt tens on right? The fan should be clean and its bearings should be well greased A good test is to turn the fan by hand with the engine shut off If it is possible to slip the belt easily, but not possible to spin the fan the tension is right

5—Is the carburetor choke in proper repair so that it opens all the way? Better open the seasonal shutter on the hot air tube Is the float level correct? If too high slight flooding will cause an over rich mixture

6—Does the ignition system furnish a spark of sufficient strength? A weak spark due to excessive lubrication of the magneto dirty breaker or distributor or weak magnets will have an effect similar to late spark timing and overheating will result

7—Are the valve tappets properly adjusted? They should have from .008 to .010 inch clearance which may be gauged by about the thickness of an ordinary post-card

8—Are the cylinders free from carbon If not remove it

9—Is the oil in the crankcase clean? Gasoline dirt or other foreign substances will impair the quality of the oil in the crankcase resulting in overheated parts due to insufficient lubrication The oil reservoir should be drained every 1,000 miles the walls thoroughly cleaned and a fresh supply of oil should then be put into the crankcase

10—Are you using the right grade of oil? Because of the increased temperatures it is often advisable in summer to use a heavier grade of oil than in winter

11—Are the exhaust pipe and muffler clean? Practically 40 per cent of the heat of combustion escapes through the exhaust It follows therefore that if any part of the exhaust system is obstructed a part of this heat must be carried off by the cooling water which will naturally raise its temperature

WITH THE AUTO DEALERS

Chronic overheating may be traced to sediment in the radiator

When the mixture is kept clean there is less chance of the engine overheating

Better results will be gained from storage batteries if they are inspected at least once every two weeks

Small, bright metal objects such as screws may be blued by the simple process of placing them on a piece of sheet metal and holding it over a fire until the parts being treated have assumed the desired color

A good lubricant for turning very hard steel can be made by mixing two parts of petroleum and one part turpentine. This is dipped on the work or cutting tool, and is said to assist materially in retaining the cutting edge on the tools Another good mixture is half and half turpentine and spirits of camphor

A clutch brake is a device to check the momentum of the clutch when changing speeds Usually when the clutch is disengaged it tends to spin for some time, due to the momentum received from the engine The brake acts in such manner as to reduce its momentum This facilitates gear shifting without having to wait

Frequently in working on motors etc, small nuts bolts, chips etc, will fall into the crank case, transmission case, etc, usually requiring considerable effort to remove them This is especially true if they fall into inaccessible places In cases of this sort a magnet on the end of a rod will be found invaluable, for it will reach the particle or nut with ease

If a nut resists all ordinary blandishments try the following Heat slightly an ordinary wrench that fits the nut and let it rest on the nut for a few minutes The heat transmitted from the wrench to the nut expands the latter so that it can usually be removed without further trouble Do not make the mistake of heating with a blow-torch as this expands the bolt also, so that the condition is unaltered

The cylinders can be kept reasonably free of carbon by removing the spark plugs and introducing a tablespoonful of kerosene or denatured alcohol in each cylinder through the compression relief cocks about once a week The kerosene should be inserted when the engine is hot, and the motor revolved by hand or by the starter Best results will be obtained by placing this in the cylinder at night in order that it may have an opportunity to soften the carbon deposit before the engine is used in the morning

In making adjustments to correct misfiring, one should always remember that the engine should be warm and no attempt should be made at adjusting the breaker points valves carburetor etc, until the engine has been run for some time Also when starting out on a cold day the engine should be given a chance to heat up by letting it run slowly in the garage This gives the oil an opportunity to become distributed over all of the parts and there is less chance of stalling on the road Take advantage of all the hot air at the carburetor inlet that can be obtained as present-day fuels demand all the heat available

In motor vehicles the rate of water circulation and the rate of air delivery both increase and decrease with the speed of the engine but the cooling effect does not conform to the changing requirements under different conditions of engine loading and atmospheric temperatures The radiator is designed to keep the cooling medium at the most efficient temperature during the hardest running in the hottest weather It can readily be seen that if the motor operates most economically when the temperature of the air is around 85 degrees Fahrenheit the cooling medium around the cylinders is not at the proper temperature if the air is below this temperature other conditions being constant

It sometimes happens that the motor has to be primed on the road and there is nothing at hand with which to take the necessary gasoline from the tank There are a number of makeshifts however A rolled-up handkerchief, a sponge on the end of a string, or some waste will absorb such gasoline and may be squeezed out over the cylinder pet-cocks

MAXWELL

A New Enterprise

In Wichita Falls

There are only four other cities in Texas, Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth and San Antonio, which have the Cleveland Steam and Chemical Process plants for removing paint from automobiles and cleaning motors and chassis.

A large plant of this kind involving an investment of several thousand dollars is distinctly a city enterprise commanding the business of all the surrounding territory.

Before repainting a car all the paint should be thoroughly removed from the pores of the surface. Our plant does this with a combination patented process involving high steam pressure and chemicals. The paint literally flows off like water. Only a short time is required to remove the paint from an automobile, and the charges are very low.

The plant is also specially equipped for thoroughly cleansing motors and chassis, taking away all the grease and dirt from every crevice, leaving them as clean as the day the car rolled from the salesroom.

Varnish and paint is quickly and cheaply removed from any article of household or office furniture without the slightest injury to the wood.

The day of the dingy, ugly looking automobile and dirty, greasy motor and chassis is passing in all cities. A good looking car and a clean motor under the hood is a mark of refinement and distinction for the owner. More and more the public is judging people by the appearance of their cars. A dingy, unsightly car is no more pardonable now than an unpainted house or dirty linen. A greasy motor implies a greasy kitchen, a soiled bathroom and a lack of refinement generally. Now that Wichita Falls has a plant capable of doing this character of work quickly, conveniently and economically many people will be glad to learn of it and begin immediately to keep their cars looking clean and new.

THE MOTORISTS' PROBLEMS

By WILLIAM H. STEWART, JR.

Motor Department:—Please let me know why my car stops when it gets warm. I have very little trouble starting it when it is cold, but when it gets warm it starts to miss, and when I stop it I can't get it started. Sometimes I can get it started when it is warm, but it won't hit but on one cylinder. I have had a few expert mechanics working on the car, but they don't seem to know what is the trouble. They tell me that the carburetor and ignition, valves, cylinders, rings, etc. are all O. K. Any information you can give me will be appreciated.—V. E.

Make sure that there is good compression in each cylinder when the engine is hot. It is barely possible that the valve tappets are adjusted too close. Try a greater clearance. Also beware of sticking valves. Sometimes the valves will stick in the guides and not close properly. Inject some kerosene and oil as a first aid. Try a new set of spark plugs. Defective plugs will cause the trouble. Adjust the points to proper clearance also those of the distributor.

Motor Department:—Here is a puzzle for you. I have a new car. Have run it only 250 miles so far. When going along at about twenty-five miles per hour the engine locks and the rear wheels skid. After waiting a few minutes I can start the engine and it seems to run allright. Car is well oiled. This has happened several times. Is there any danger of injuring the engine? What should I do to prevent this?—R. C.

Change the oil in the crank case and fill with fresh oil. Use plenty of it and drive very slowly until after the first 1,000 miles. All the bearing surfaces are tight and inclined to seize when heated. Unless you use plenty of fresh oil and drive slowly for a time, you will score the cylinders and burn out some bearings.

Motor Department:—I have a 1919 Ford and have a lot of trouble with grease working out of the rear axle housing. I have had the left side packed with felt twice, and the grease worked out after running the car two weeks each time. Is there any permanent way of fixing it?—P. K.

Perhaps the bearing is badly worn or the shaft scored on this side, either of which causes will make an oil tight joint difficult to make. Try using a heavier felt and fit it tightly. Also see that the shaft is not bent at this point. Use a heavier grease in the differential, especially in warm weather.

Motor Department:—For some time oil has been coming out under the brake lining of my Dodge car. It not only ruins the looks of the wheels, but prevents the brake from having any effect on that side. I put a new washer on and tightened the lock nut to the limit, but without success.—L. K.

Better take the wheel off and install new grease retaining washers. Also use a heavier grease in the rear axle during the Summer.

Motor Department:—I notice that the drain cocks in the bottom of the crankcase of my Overland are a little above the bottom. Is the oil level correct when the oil stops flowing from these cocks? Is cork a good gasket material to use between the upper and lower halves of the crank case?—B. P.

The corks connect to what are called "standpipes," which bring the oil down to the correct level. Pressed sheet cork makes a very good crank case gasket.

Motor Department:—I have a Buick four cylinder car, and am bothered very much with its missing. At five or ten miles it jerks and misses badly. Ignition and firing system seem to be O. K. A garage man tells me it is due to the air adjusting spring in carburetor being stretched. Please advise me what you think is wrong, as this is very annoying.—V. K.

The symptoms indicate carburetor trouble and would suggest that you install a new spring before incurring other expense.

Motor Department:—Is there any medium priced apparatus on the market for installation in a private garage to recharge storage battery? Something in the line of a rectifier to change from alternating to direct current.—READER.

There are several good ones on the market. Your automobile supply dealer will advise you, as we cannot recommend any particular mechanism in this department.

Motor Department:—I have a magneto used to ignite a single cylinder engine with make-and-break spark. Can this instrument be used to charge my small storage battery which is used only for lights?—K. S.

Such magnetos always produce alternating current and so could not be used for charging a storage battery. You might gear it up and run the current directly to the lights, but results will not be very satisfactory. The lights will rise and fall with engine speed and so go out when the engine stops.

Motor Department:—My Ford car creeps forward when the pedal is held in neutral position and to hold the car still, I must apply the brake also. What causes this?—R. O.

The Ford car used a planetary gear set controlled by contracting bands for low and reverse speeds and it is very likely that the band on the low speed drum is too tight, and causes the car to creep forward when the pedal is in neutral. This band may be released by turning the adjustment screw which projects through the gear case from the second drum.

Motor Department:—What causes the gears to grind on my car and how can it be remedied? The car has been run about 4,000 miles and the gears drag more when putting them in first and second than when putting them in high and reverse. This is very annoying, as it causes such a disagreeable noise when starting off. Any information will be appreciated.—READER.

Evidently your clutch does not release properly. This may be due to faulty adjustment. Also be sure that all the clutch parts are well lubricated. Sometimes a dry clutch thrust bearing or yoke will cause the trouble.

HELPFUL HINTS.

An accumulation of carbon on the porcelain of the spark plug will cause a short circuit. A broken porcelain or points burned and too far apart to permit spark to pass across the air gap will also cause a cylinder to miss firing the charge, with a result that you will have an irregular running engine.

Clean soot from spark plugs, touch up points with emery cloth and see that gaps are correct. Oil magneto, also lighting and starting apparatus. Fill grease cups and screw them down, then refill them. Oil all working parts. Test compression and grind valves if they leak. Put neatsfoot oil on clutch leather if using a leather covered cone clutch.

Do not neglect to take a few spark plug cores with you on your trip. The metal parts of a spark plug will last almost indefinitely, but the cores must break in time, and that usually means buying a new spark plug. As the cores can be bought for a fraction of the cost of a new plug, it means economy to carry a few with you. Also carry a few extra gaskets.

Spark plug porcelains crack from a variety of causes. A chance blow from a wrench while tightening, pulling too hard on the ignition wire, dropping the plug, or a defect in manufacture are frequent causes. But the usual trouble is from screwing them too hard into the cylinder. As the plug heats up and expands it cracks the porcelain.

UP-TO-MINUTE NEWS OF AUTOMOBILE PROGRESS

Among the new locks to prevent automobile theft is one that operates a valve in an intake manifold.

For motor truck owners there has been designed a compact device to record the cost of operating a truck in terms of material, time and distance.

Attractively finished containers of varying capacity, clamping securely and snugly to the running board of an automobile, have been designed to carry emergency supplies of gasoline and water for tourists.

In North and South Carolina, the courts have held that a pedestrian struck by a motor car can sue for possession of the vehicle.

Canvas houses built on light delivery chassies are helping to solve the housing problem in various parts of the country.

The largest truck ever made is used by T. F. Cathcart, of Atlanta, Ga. It is 26 1-2 feet long, 11 1-2 feet high and has a loading space of 850 cubic feet. It is loaded it weighs 11,650 pounds.

Before a chauffeur's license will be issued in Cleveland, Ohio, a new traffic ordinance provides for the taking of finger prints of the applicant.

To solve the problem of freight car goes on one enterprising body building concern has designed an auto motive truck freight car body to carry big loads and which has proved its usefulness.

Buy the best spark plugs you can get and always keep them clean. Do not wait until they misfire. Most plugs lose their efficiency after a few thousand miles service. The porcelain loses its insulating qualities and electrical leakage follows.

Not Only 1922 Prices

but the finest Marmon 34

The $3985 Marmon—formerly $5000—still maintains its remarkable supremacy in comparative demonstrations, as we gladly prove.

WHEN the Marmon 34 was priced at $5000, it sold on basis of comparative performance. Thus it won its popularity in the quality field. It proved outstanding supremacy when it and others were put through the 12 vital tests of performance.

It still retains that coveted position. Nothing but its price is changed. The $3985 Marmon 34 is the identical $5000 car, completely equipped.

While the 20% saving is the main appeal at present, remember that the Marmon 34 continues to hold its unique position in the engineering world as the sponsor of Advanced Engineering and Stabilized Design.

No man can afford now to buy according to old favorites. The new Marmon 34 price has upset all standards.

It brings new values into discussion. Never has such a fine car been obtainable at such a low price.

The new prices we quote. Make your own comparisons. See how the Marmon 34 dominates the price field.

Next, make comparisons of performance. A Marmon 34 is at your disposal. Visit our sales room, or telephone. We will put the Marmon 34 through the 12 vital tests. You can drive it yourself, if you choose.

BUDGET SYSTEM FOR COUNTY IS PLANNED

County Auditor Expects to Install System Required by State Law

Encouragement of economy in the expenditures of the money in Wichita county in the opinion of the county auditor W W Murphy can be brought about by instituting the budget system The system is not an old one but one that is one followed in the management of all large business

Article 1659 of the statutes of the state of Texas in limiting the duties of the county auditor states He shall prepare an estimate of the revenues and expenses and shall annually furnish the sums to the commissioners court which court shall carefully make a budget of all appropriations that be set aside for various expenses of the county government in each branch and department

It can therefore plainly be seen that it is not a new plan of the auditor himself but one that is compulsory under the law

Mr Murphy has been spending some time on the budget system and in order to familiarize himself more closely with the workings of the system expects to go to Houston where the system was started several years ago Reports from Houston are to the effect that wonderful results and benefits have been derived from it and that a great saving in the county's money has been effected

It is the opinion of those who have been made acquainted with the new intention that the matter should be attended to immediately and the budget appropriations prepared before the court of commissioners sets its tax rate for the coming year

In commenting on the budget system one party who is familiar with it stated that the county would effect a sufficient saving in the first year to pay for the instituting of it several times over

There is a certain amount of money on hand and the appropriations made for each department are just sufficient to carry that department over until the next year and the result is that the strictest economy must be exercised was the favorable criticism offered by him

SAYS PRICE REDUCTIONS WILL STIMULATE BUYING

The most encouraging factor in stimulating general buying says Edward S Jordan president of the Jordan Motor Car company are the recent price reductions announced by automobile and tire manufacturers

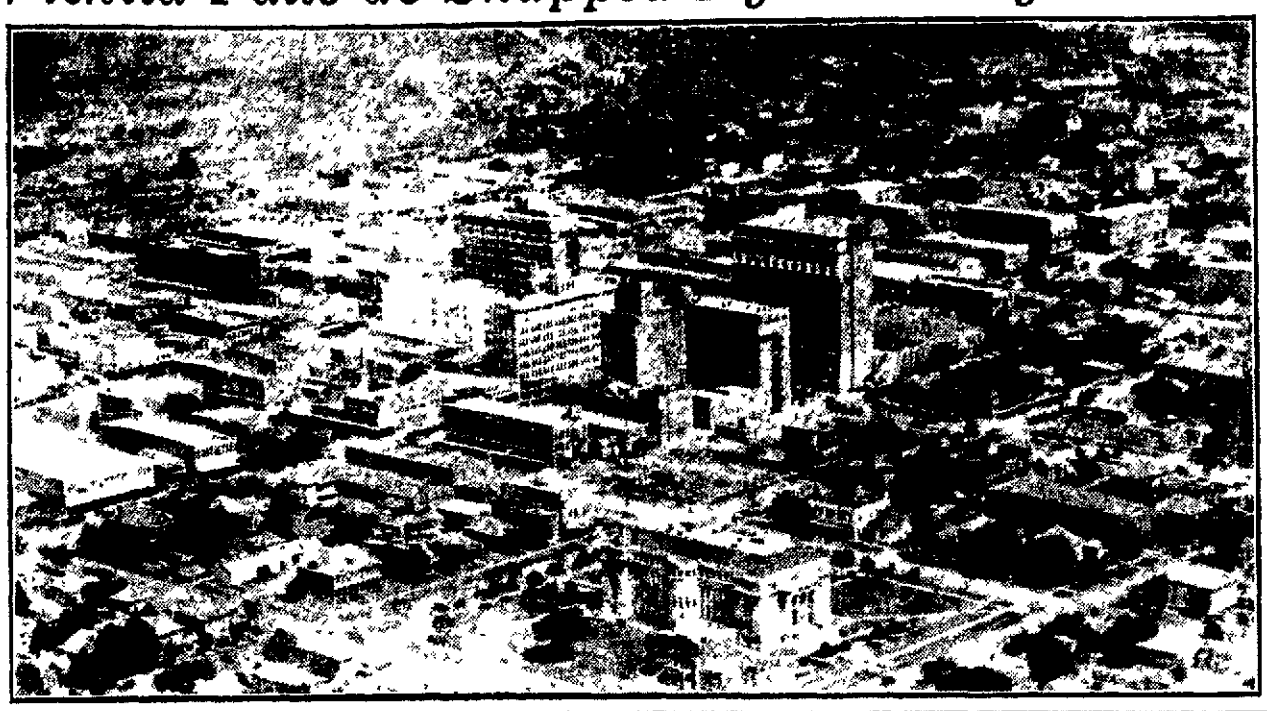
While general prices have actually gone down in many lines the public has not yet secured the benefit of these reductions Usually it takes months for a price reduction to percolate through the jobber and retailer to the ultimate consumer

In the automotive industry however the manufacturer controls the price which the consumer pays Therefore any reduction which is made is immediately effective to the buying public

For a long time it was felt that tire and automobile prices were too high Now that some of the big manufacturers have reduced the buying response has been immediate

If we can take the public's response to our $600 to $9 reduction as indicative of the latent market then there must be a lot of business waiting to be turned into immediate orders

Wichita Falls as Snapped By an Army Airman



LOCAL DEALERS HOPE FOR ACCEPTANCE OF THEIR TRAFFIC REGULATION PLAN

Wichita Falls will probably have some kind of traffic signals in the near future if action started last week by the Wichita Falls Automotive Dealers association can be taken as an indication The committee appointed several weeks ago to confer with police officials in regard to improving traffic conditions in the city met with Police Commissioner Brailey and submitted a plan of action for his approval No definite acceptance or rejection of the plans were made but it is known that the commissioner looks with favor on the ideas of the association

The dealers of the city have offered to install traffic signalling devices on the more important down town corners and to bring an experienced traffic officer here to give local policemen a course of instruction provided the police department will then furnish officers to keep the signals in operation This plan is not regarded as feasible by the commissioner chiefly because the expense of maintaining the officers would be greater than the department could bear

Such a plan would necessitate the employing of four or five men to work continually as traffic cops and this cost in the face of the retrenchment program now being mapped out would be prohibitive

The advisability of installing stationary sign posts with orders to drive to the right was also discussed in the meeting between Mr Brailey and the committee and this is regarded as a more satisfactory measure than the other At least by the commissioner The initial expense would perhaps be a little more as it is planned to put a small sign on sixteen intersections from Sixth to Tenth on Ohio Indiana Scott and Lamar but the upkeep would not be so great and the service rendered would in the opinion of Brailey, be practically all that is needed by the city

A new traffic code is to be formulated by the city council in the near future and it is probable that provisions will be made for the establishing of some kind of safety device signals Suggestions from the business council of the chamber of commerce and from the auto dealers association are to be sought in the matter, with the likelihood of some action be taken when these are secured

SHERIDAN MOTOR PLANT AT MUNCIE CHANGES HANDS

An important announcement in the automobile field comes from Muncie Indiana, to the effect that D A Burke, president of the Sheridan Motor Car company, has purchased the Sheridan from the General Motors corporation It is reported that this deal, which includes the plant, a large amount of land adjacent, factory equipment, and the name and good will of the business involves about $3 000 000 Associated with Mr Burke as one of a number of prominent stockholders in this transaction is W C Durant, founder and for many years president of General Motors

It is rumored in automobile circles that this is to be a unit in another great group of companies to be headed by Mr Durant, who has already been successful in organizing one of the largest industrial groups in the world The plans of the new owners contemplate a greatly enlarged plant at Muncie with greater facilities for the manufacture of Sheridan cars Arrangements are already under way for this increased activity

The Sheridan has been in production since last fall Sales have shown a constant growth from the beginning of the business and Sheridan success is beyond question

This change in ownership is a natural development It was Mr Durant who while still president of General Motors asked Mr Burke to design a new car and equip a factory for the production of an automobile of highest quality at a price in keeping with merit

The NASH FOUR

In response to a wide-spread demand for a light-weight car of high quality possessing those distinguishing features of power, comfort, beauty, economy and dependability which have always characterized Nash automobiles, these fine four-cylinder cars have been added to the Nash line. The predominant virtues of the Nash Four are its exceptional power and unusual economy. This power and unusual economy come from the famous Nash Perfected Valve-in-Head motor, adapted to the four cylinder size. The body design is expression of that beauty and utility for which Nash cars have come to be known throughout the country. The wheel-base of all models of the Nash Four is 112 inches, and cord tires are standard equipment.

AMERICA WIELDING INFLUENCE ON CHINA THROUGH EDUCATION

RETURNED CHINESE STUDENTS INJECT FIRST DEMOCRATIC VIRUS.

PLANED AND CARRIED OUT THE REMAKING OF CANTON

After Every Reform the Reformers Look to America to Trus up Their Work.

By CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL
Special Correspondent of the Wichita Daily Times
(Copyrt, 1921, by Wichita Daily Times)

CANTON, May 28—Before any one takes, like a disease the pessimism that is talked and written about China it might be well to remember that from time to time one wholesome spirit really does appear to agitate its waters and the sign is good and hopeful That spirit is a certain reflex influence of the best there is in America working in ways and with a force we have never suspected

It was returned Chinese students from American universities who shot the first democratic virus into China's political frame and brought on the revolution It is the same element which practically did for Yuan Shih Kai when he made himself emperor smashed up the restoration of the monarchy in 1917 and has so far frustrated the restoration that madmen are planning now Chinamen returned from America planned and are carrying out the remaking of Canton The government here, the best and most efficient in all China is in similar hands and has the same inspiration and after every reform the reformers look to America to trus up their work and find some applause, look with a kind of pathetic hopefulness, the more moving from the fact that we know so little about it

This remarkable Canton government for instance ought to be better known and understood It is commonly referred to by outsiders as the Southern Chinese Republic, but it isn't It is something more interesting and it seems to me more hopeful

After the glad day when China tied the can to the tail of monarchy a parliament was elected which chose an administrative council of eight members, with a job something like that of a cabinet something like that of a president When Yuan Shih Kai made his historic blunder and threw out the republic, he dispersed the parliament at the point of the bayonet When his short day was over and the republic came back part of the parliament and five of the administrative council, being a majority therefor refused to recognize the new government then established at Peking withdrew to the south which was of their way of thinking and established there what they asserted was the only genuine pure juiced properly mandated government in China The rump parliament or what is left of it and the five unhaunted councillors are now at Canton, and Dr Sun Yat sen is one of them No doubt he is the most influential one but that is because of his extraordinary force of character and because he is such an iron sided old revolutionist and not because of official eminence

Canton is the capital of Kwang-tung province and Kwang tung has always led the revolt against Peking At one time more than one third of populous China sides with Kwang-tung Nobody can say definitely now how the division runs because there are provinces which side today with Canton and tomorrow nominally with Peking and because nobody really sides with Peking which is a written device held together by foreign influences which plan and expect to restore the monarchy and then to control it—for their own profit

It is row which looks in some of its aspects like comic opera and in some like a vast inebriate ward upsets the whole Far East cripples its business strangles its development and plagues all the rest of the world including the United States which stands so stolidly aloof but the strange thing is that in China it seems to be carried on with no particular feeling on either side The banditti of one provincial governor may shoot up the banditti of another, or loot river vessels or burn towns, newspaper organs may exchange broadsides of choice vernacular abuse, officers on one side with their pockets full of Japanese money may denounce officers on the other for taking Japanese bribes nobody seems to care very much Easy good will prevails In Canton the movement for the relief of the starving northern provinces is popularly and strongly supported Dr C C Wu one of Sun Yat-sen's ablest lieutenants is chairman of the relief committee If the case were reversed Peking would do as much for the south

Military operations between the northern and southern armies are, like those of the famous Gen Fallbach, confined to marching manuevers One side advances the other retreats and both loot the new territory occupied Military governors get money from the foreign powers interested in keeping the row alive, put it in their pockets and tell their troops to ravage the country for their pay The unlucky villagers are therefore the chief sufferers from what is called the civil war soldiering in it is a fairly safe employment

What then is the row about—ostensibly? Why has the south split from the north and why do sincere reformers like Sun Yat sen call the government at Peking a usurpation? I have been talking with Dr C C Wu on this subject and will pass his views along just as he gave them to me He ought to know he is one of the best minds in China His father is our old friend and college chum Dr Wu Ting-fang, so long the popular sympathetic wise witty and famous Chinese minister to Washington The son is an American university man and looks and acts the part without a make-up He can talk as good colloquial American as any man going I told him about the accepted beliefs in the west concerning the struggle in China and how the hammers were ringing on both parties for keeping up a quarrel for merely personal or pocket-book reasons He took it seriously

Not on this side anyway" he said What we are fighting for is vital principle and we are ready to quit any time we can see that principle established

"What principle?" said I for principle was never mentioned in the smoke room.

"The foundation and very life of popular government," says he If we are not ready to fight for that we are not worthy to be called democrats Run over the bald outlines of the history of the last ten years and judge for yourself

"When monarchy was overturned in China there was first a provisional government which called for the election of a parliament by the people This parliament was charged with certain specific duties one of which was the preparing of a constitution for the new republic Before these duties were performed the Republic was overthrown by the attempt of Yuan Shih-Kai to make himself emperor The people rose against this and restored the Republic The only legal and reasonable thing to do then was to reassemble the parliament and allow it to go on with its work The men who came into power at Peking utterly disregarded the law refused to reassemble to their own will We insisted and still insist upon the supremacy of the law and of the popular vote and that is all there is to the so-called rebellion in the South In other words we are loyal to democracy and Peking is not If there are any rebels they are in Peking not here

I asked about the chances of ending the strife

"Only one way" he said It is democracy or autocracy and in the long run democracy is never defeated

We talked about the bedevilling of Chinese affairs by outside interests and I said that the people of the United States earnestly desired the success of the republican principle in China but seemed to think the best thing they could do was to keep strictly out of the mess no matter what other powers might do

"Easy work" said Dr Wu "But suppose the mere fact that you keep your hands off encourages other nations to thrust theirs in" And suppose their continued interference ends in something most detrimental perhaps detrimental to America interests in the Orient something not only ruinous to American business interests and the traditional American policy in the Orient but to the idea that America deems basic and on which it has built its free Republic Don't you think it might wake up too late to the fact that a vague and indifference were the very policies it should not have practiced here

"Well then what?" said I

Well then the fact is the sympathies of the United States ought to be with us that are fighting for the democratic principle and if they were once helpfully displayed with us would end the trouble You can see therefore that your policy of hands off while it has a sound of even handed justice can be carried too far

I report without comment But whether Dr Wu is right or wrong the fact becomes always more apparent that the influence of the United States in the Orient although purely moral is very great It isn't quite so great as before Mr Lansing as Secretary of state fell for the doctrine of territorial propinquity but it is still great enough great than guns and armies for instance and might have a greater effect upon the destinies of the Far East

Five-Cent Loaf of Bread Is Planned For North Dakota

By HAROLD D JACOBS
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK May 28—The farmers of North Dakota are working to bring back the five cent loaf of bread

They declare bread could now be sold at the old standard figure based on the present price of wheat and they are planning to demonstrate this to the rest of the country

Horace A Davis of Brookline Mass eastern representative of the Bank of North Dakota said in an interview with the United Press today that the state will soon issue a $[illegible] bond issue through its bank to establish a flour mill at Grand Forks, through which the demonstration will be carried out

Bread could be selling at five cents a loaf now and it should be, Davis said The difference between the present price of bread and the nickel is unfairly taken by millers transportation men middlemen and others operating between the farmer and the consumer The experiment now being carried out in North Dakota will show that this waste can be eliminated and that wheat can be brought to the public in the form of a five-cent loaf of bread

Former Vice-President Marshall declared some time ago that what this country needs is a good five cent cigar I feel that a good five cent loaf of bread would be an indicative of a return to normalcy

Davis explained that a small experimental mill established at the North Dakota State Agricultural College about a year ago had shown that so-called lower grades of wheat for which the farmers were forced to accept a much lower price from the millers had been used to make high grade flour for which the millers received usual prices The extra profit for the farmers was said to range from 21 to 42 per cent

When a Cow Needs a Friend

"Flies, Flies, Flies! These pesky beasts are driving me crazy! I'm all jumpy and hot and nervous. It's harder for me to make milk now than it was in winter and I don't get nearly as good feed."
WOULD your cows say this if they could speak? Or do you give them a properly balanced ration that lets them make milk without robbing their bodies?
Purina Cow Chow
supplies the elements that are lacking in pasture. It furnishes the digestible protein and mineral matter that is absolutely necessary for continued milk production. Your own records will prove that it pays to feed Cow Chow on pasture.
Your cows need you for a friend—now. See that they are fed properly. It will show up in the pail.

BOND CAMPAIGN TO START SATURDAY AT COUNTY GATHERING

CITIZENS CALLED TO MEET AT COURT HOUSE TO GET TOGETHER ON PLAN.

INVITATIONS ARE SENT TO OTHER COMMUNITIES

Program For Meeting to be Arranged by Committee Monday—Big Attendance Hoped For.

The campaign for the new $1,500,000 bond proposal for good roads in this county will be officially inaugurated next Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. when a county mass meeting will be held at the court house.

Invitations are being sent to organizations throughout the county urging participation by taxpayers in every precinct, so that the proposition may be thoroughly understood.

The program for the meeting will be arranged Monday morning, when a meeting of the local committee, of which Mayor Cline is chairman, will be held. It is expected that Messrs Cline and Keil of this city and a number of speakers from other points will be heard at the meeting.

The following letter has been sent to chambers of commerce in Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett urging participation:

"The chamber of commerce of Wichita Falls unanimously endorsed the proposed change in the interest rate on our county road bonds and the change in the manner of payment of same to be voted on June 10.

"This body also heartily endorsed the proposal to build branches of the county hospital at Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett, which projects will be voted on at the same time.

"In order to crystallize sentiment in favor of these important projects, it will be necessary to acquaint our people with the real facts. The impression may prevail that the change in the road bond issue will increase taxes, whereas the county auditor states that the change in the manner of payment will make possible a saving of some $200,000 during the entire transaction.

"It is necessary to make an intensive campaign to put over these propositions, and for the purpose of starting this movement, this organization invites you and your citizens to attend a mass meeting at the county court house at Wichita Falls on Saturday afternoon, June 4, at 2 o'clock. Please have as large a delegation of your representative citizens present as possible.

"Our leading business men, who have studied this proposition, tell us that our only hope of building our county road program without an indefinite delay is to carry this proposed election by the required two-thirds majority.

"Wichita Falls wishes to put itself whole-heartedly alongside the other communities in the county to complete the road program for the benefit of the whole county. Let's get together."

Long Skirts Cause Much Excitement In California City

The Times has received a telegram from Charleston A. Kleinman at Los Angeles, expressing the hope that the University club is making progress in its campaign for lower rents and for better regulation of automobile lights.

He reports a considerable excitement in Los Angeles a few days ago by the appearance of a woman wearing long skirts.

Despite the fact that a surplus of oil is produced in California, he reports that producers there are receiving $1.80 per barrel for 19 gravity oil. He attributes this good price to the activity of the California oil producers' association.

FAREWELL BANQUET TENDERED SENIORS

Are Guests of Alumni Friday Night Following Their Graduation Exercises.

An impressive farewell, thoroughly in keeping with the many successful enterprises carried through by the students of the senior class the past year, was held in the William and Mary hotel Friday night immediately following the graduation exercises, when the entire class gathered for the alumni banquet, tendered each year to the graduates of the school. The affair, while marked with fun and humor, was not given over entirely to the unrestrained enjoyment, as the knowledge that this was to be the last gathering of the class as a whole cast something of a shadow of solemnity over the occasion.

A menu which included everything from soup to nuts was served, after which a series of short talks and toasts were delivered by members of the high school faculty and several of the seniors. The printed programs caused some speculation as to what the affair was to be like, as the menu started off with "adnomia detlas" and ended up with "ekae hitw dratsuc negort," with a liberal sprinkling of other equally unintelligible phrases in between, but after someone suggested that they be read backwards all fears were laid at rest.

Talks were given by Principal S. H. Rider, Miss Kinsie, Miss Splawn and Miss Hendricks, all of whom bade farewell to the class and took occasion to congratulate it on its achievements during the four years of high school life. Responses to toasts were made by several students, who thanked the teachers for the interest and work shown in their behalf. Jewel Whatley, president of the class, acted as toastmaster.

With the conclusion of the banquet the official life of the class was brought to an end. Nothing more is being planned in the way of entertainments, although the senior play, "Honor Bright," will be given at Electra next Tuesday night in order to raise funds to cover the expense of the senior year book. A slight deficit still remains in the treasury, and it is hoped to erase this. Miss Marguerite Fisher entertained the members of the cast at her home, 1709 Collins, Saturday.

The City National Bank of Commerce considers its depositors as friends and serves them accordingly. Courtesy and prompt personal attention to all patrons is a guiding rule in the operation of the bank. 15-1tc

SMOOTH TONGUE IS FAILURE ON SECOND ATTEMPT FOR TRIO

A smooth tongue and a good "line" proved successful to a trio of alleged automobile thieves in gaining their liberty on Friday, May 13, but on the second attempt a few days ago, it got them nothing.

James Glenn, who is assisting Charles Bebout in the automobile anti-theft work here arrested three men on May 13 and brought them before district officials. There was not sufficient evidence to place the three in jail, and the smooth tongue plied by one of them enabled them to gain their freedom.

Charles Bebout has just returned from Walters, Okla., where two of the men were placed in the county jail on charges of bringing a stolen automobile into the state. The third was arrested at Desdemona Friday night and was to be brought to this city where a federal charge is to be placed against him. A fourth man held in connection with the recovery of three stolen cars is also in jail at Walters.

The cars recovered by Bebout and Glenn were the property of J. P. Bent of Graham and Elton Wells of Brownwood.
